Dear Secondary Occasional Teacher Colleague,

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome you to a new school year as a member of the Occasional Teachers' Bargaining Unit (OTBU) of OSSTF District 12. As well as being a member of our local bargaining unit, you are also a member of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF), an education workers' union with a proud history of over one hundred years of working on behalf of its members and of public education in Ontario.

It is part of our responsibility as your union representatives to help maintain and defend the Collective Agreement (C.A.) under which you work. A copy of the C.A. can be found on the OTBU website. I encourage you to become familiar with this document so that you are aware of your rights and responsibilities as a secondary Occasional Teacher in TDSB schools. The OTBU is the only organization that can represent you with your employer.

You are part of a Bargaining Unit with a richly diverse membership. I encourage each of you to participate in the union through our meetings, workshops and committees to learn and benefit from the strengths and expertise of your brothers and sisters in the union.

An information email is sent out regularly. It contains important information about negotiations, member advisories, up-coming meetings, professional development opportunities and much more.

We also maintain a website, which provides up-to-date information about the things you need to know as an OTBU member. You may also want to visit the provincial OSSTF website: www.osstf.on.ca to get information about Ontario-wide OSSTF activities, issues, publications and initiatives.

If you have any questions about professional or work-related issues, please call us at 416-423-3600 or email us at otbu.office@d12.osstf.ca

If you wish to join the over 1900 OTBU members who receive periodic emails from us with up-to-date information, please send us your personal (non-TDSB) email address and we will add you to the list.

On behalf of the OTBU Executive I wish you a successful and rewarding year. Yours in

President, OSSTF District 12 OTBU

In solidarity,

Linda Bartram

How does the OTBU fit into the OSSTF Organizational Structure?

The OTBU Collective Agreement consists of two sections. Part A is the Central Agreement negotiated between Provincial OSSTF and the Ontario government. It determines increases to wage and salary levels, benefits, sick leave and class size, among other issues. CLICK

Part B is the Local Agreement negotiated between the OTBU and the TDSB. It covers issues related to working conditions, employment matters specific to occasional teachers and labour rights, among other topics.

See Documents Box on the OTBU D12 homepage:

<http://www.otbud12.ca>

What is the difference between the District (D12) and the Occasional Teachers Bargaining Unit (OTBU D12)?

The District is the grouping of all OSSTF Bargaining Units associated with one employer. In our case the employer is the TDSB. Our district is District 12, Toronto.

The Bargaining Unit is the group of employees who are part of a particular Collective Agreement. In our case, we are the Occasional Teachers' Bargaining Unit (OTBU). We represent all occasional teachers who teach in secondary schools. We do not represent teachers in the Adult Continuing Education programmes and other Continuing Education teachers.

There are two other Bargaining Units in District 12, the Toronto Teachers Bargaining Unit (TBU) and the District 12, Professional Student Services Personnel (PSSP) which represents, social workers, speech and language pathologists and other educational professionals.

This handbook is for the members of the Occasional Teachers' Bargaining Unit (OTBU).

How do members become part of the Bargaining Unit Executive?

The OTBU Executive is elected every two years. All OTBU Executive positions are part-time.

Any member of the Bargaining Unit may run for a position on the Executive.

In an election year, nominations are submitted no later than 20 days prior to the Annual General Meeting in May. Candidates are given the opportunity to make a campaign speech at the AGM and to respond to questions asked by attendees at the meeting. Voting takes place on-line for approximately one week. The OTBU Election Committee manages the election and an independent voting provider, Union Strategies, handles voting technicalities.

Please see the articles under Regulation 2 – EXECUTIVE of the OTBU D12 Constitution for a detailed explanation of the election process. A description of the duties of an Executive Officer are detailed under Regulation 2.4

<http://www.otbud12.com/media/OTBU-2025-2026-Constitution2.pdf>

What does the OTBU do?

The OTBU D12 is the 11th largest BU within the OSSTF

1. Negotiate Part B of the Collective Agreement (CA). Download the CA from-www.otbud12.ca
2. Take your concerns to the TDSB.
3. Represent members when problems arise within a school.
4. Organize General Meetings and Annual General Meetings. November and May
5. Organize Professional Activity Days. November and February
6. Organize two "Welcome to the OTBU" for new members. October and February
7. Promote Health and Safety.
8. File Grievances on your behalf when necessary.
9. Represent the interests of OTs and LTOs at the Board, District and Provincial levels.
10. Engage in Political Action.
11. Answer members questions on a variety of issues (call 416-423-3600).

12. Contact the OTBU if:

What the OSSTF Does?

Founded in 1919, OSSTF/FEESO represents almost 60,000 public high school teachers, occasional teachers, educational assistants, continuing education teachers and instructors, psychologists, secretaries, speech-language pathologists, social workers, plant support personnel, attendance counsellors and many other educational workers.

The mandate of the Federation is to associate and unite teachers and all other employees of educational institutions or local government bodies of whatever nature, or who are employed by or engaged by any organization which provides services to an educational institution or to a local government body, whether directly or indirectly, within the Province of Ontario, and to promote and safeguard their interests.

What We Stand For

We are committed to protecting and enhancing public education.

This results in the greatest good for both our members and our province. This is because:

- Without a strong public education system, our diverse, open and prosperous society is threatened
- Without highly capable, dedicated teachers and educational workers, student success is jeopardized
- And without positive learning and working conditions, educational progress is undermined.

As one of the most powerful, progressive forces in the educational community, OSSTF/FEESO can back up its beliefs with action – and really make a difference.

All our efforts to protect and enhance public education are founded on the value of public education and the five principles required to sustain it.

OSSTF/FEESO's Provincial Office operates in three major areas

1. Protective Services which include negotiations, pay equity, organizing new members and grievance/arbitration.
2. Educational Services which include professional development, union training, curriculum testing, member resource materials.
3. Communications/Political Action which includes publications, media releases, media relations, lobbying, coalitions and international assistance.

In addition, the Provincial Office also houses the following departments: accounting, database services, information technology, certification, production, administration and a research library.

Annual OT Responsibilities (Five in all)

All members must work a minimum of 20 days to stay on the Secondary OT roster.

Retired teachers can work a maximum of 50 days-plus. See the OTTP website for details. The OT-BU D12 is not able to advise retired OTs on OTTP rules.

<https://www.otpp.com/en-ca/members/life-events/living-in-retirement/your-reemployment-limit/>

1. OT Roster Renewal for the following year

In late May or early June the TDSB will send an email to your TDSB email account asking if you wish to stay on the OT roster. NOTE: this year the OT Roster Renewal may be sent via TDSB now, the weekly Monday email from the Board. Check your email. If you do not respond in the affirmative by June 30th, you will be dropped from the roster. If you forgot to do so by, during the month of July you can apply for Re-instatement. If you realize by September that you forgot to apply for re-instatement, then you apply through Recruiting. There is no guarantee of being placed back on the OT roster, in either case. If you are put back on the OT Roster there may be restrictions or requirements.: The renewal link may/will be in a TDSB NOW Monday email

See the following pages for more information on Re-instatement and Recruiting.

2. The Annual Employee Offence Declaration (AOD) and Police Record Check (new)

You will be sent an email in the spring reminding you to update your AOD, but you can go on the TDSB website and do this earlier. Police Record Check (new)- next page for number 5.

3. Ontario College of Teachers

You have to renew with the OCT by April 15th. The current fee is $200. If you renew after April 15 a penalty is charged. You do this on your own. The TDSB does not deduct the fee from your payslip for non-contract teachers.

4. Compliance training courses

You are to complete any required by the TDSB. These are found in myPath on the TDSB website. LTOs are not compensated for this. Daily OTs may be compensated. For retirees this counts towards your 50 days as either a 1/2 or a full day-check your December or February paystubs. Due January 17, 2026. Note: the TDSB and OTTP are unforgiving on this point. Keep careful track of your days.

AND

- The TDSB only contacts its employees via the TDSB email system. Check weekly and be sure to check the Monday tdsbNOW email.

5. Enhanced Police Record Check - Starting March 2, 2026

The province has introduced enhanced police record check requirements for Ontario school boards, including new timelines for individuals whose most recent check was collected before September 1, 2021.

Employees, volunteers, service providers, and students on placements must provide a new police record check every five years, or following a criminal charge or conviction. Most employees who work in schools will require a Vulnerable Sector Check. The Police Record Check Office will begin emailing staff on March 2 if a new police record check is needed.

Emails to staff who require a new check will indicate the deadline and the type of check required. For more information, visit the Police Record Check page on tdsbWEB or email PoliceReferenceCheckOffice@tdsb.on.ca.

What's Changing

- Police record checks are limited to two prescribed types:
 - Criminal Record and Judicial Matters Check (CRJMC)
 - Vulnerable Sector Check (VSC)
- All employees, volunteers, service providers, and students on educational placements must provide a new police record check every five years.
- Individuals who are charged or convicted of a criminal offence must provide an updated check.
- New timelines apply to:
 - new employees, volunteers, and service providers
 - existing staff based on their last police record check
 - individuals without a previous check on file

The Police Record Check Office will begin requesting updated police record checks from current employees and other individuals by March 2, 2026. Staff who require a new check will receive an email indicating both the deadline and the type of check required by employees, service providers, volunteers, and students on an educational placement are expected to pay for their police record checks. (About $72).

School boards can implement measures that allow employees to continue working while they are waiting for their police record check to be processed.

In circumstances where employees have a positive criminal record, TDSB will apply the Interim Measures Procedure (PR743) during the investigation. Each circumstance will be reviewed on a case-by-case and position-by-position basis.

Summary. The Enhanced Record check must be done every 5 years. It is now a requirement to stay on the OT roster. The Record check is on-line and takes about 10 minutes. It is staggered, you must have it done by the month you have a birthday in 2026, starting with April. E.g. If you were born in September, you must have it done by September 2026. It can take 2-23 months to complete. DON'T wait until the month of your birthday. If it was in September fill out the online form in May or June. If you were born in April, May or June complete it ASAP. The Record Check is for where you live, not where you work, and is transferable.

Daily routine of an OT

- Arrive at the school by 8:30 am. Have the job number with you, just in case.
- Check in with the main office and let them know you are in for _____.
- You will be given a folder with a school map, contact phone numbers, emergency lockdown procedures, school timetable, teacher timetable, attendance policies etc. In the folder might be work that the teacher has left for the classes. Check to see if it is Week A or Week B, some schools alternate the morning classes between periods 1 and 2.
- You should also be given the keys to the classroom and the staff washroom. If you do not receive keys call the OTBU office-466-423-3600- and let us know, at your convenience.
- Be in the classroom by 8:45.
- Put your name of the Board, so the students know who you are.
- The teacher may have left work for the class on the desk if it was not in the folder. In most cases class work will be found in either Google Classroom or Brightspace. Put this on the board.
- First task is to take attendance, likely in one of two ways. In the folder there might be a paper list of the students for each class, some schools submit the attendance electronically. Instructions on how to do this with the password to log should be in the folder. Most classrooms have a computer on the desk, but not all.

You can read out the students' names for attendance. However, if you want to avoid being Mr. Garvey (see YouTube -Mr. Garvey substitute teacher) have them write their name- first and last - on a sheet of paper, some classes might have two Liam's or three Sofia's. Then compare that list to the paper list. Most schools want the attendance sent down by 9:20.

- Your task is now to supervise the class.

Repeat for all periods.

- You might be given an on call, that is covering another class for a teacher who is away. This can be either a half or full period. Daily OTs can do full period on calls and there is no upper limit to how many you can do in a year. However, LTOs have the same workload as contract teachers who have an upper limit of 27 on calls plus 5 supervision periods.
- At the end of the day return the keys and folder, and if necessary, leave a note if anything unusual happened in the class with the office. This is rarely necessary.
- It is always a good idea to write a note to the teacher, using the TDSB email system, on how the classes went. Keep it short but be sure to add your employee number with your name. Teachers can ask for you specifically and can input your name into SFE directly. 70% of all jobs are prearranged.

TDSB Occasional Teaching Reinstatement Request Process

The Board will review the composition of the Occasional Teacher List and may, at its discretion, remove the name of any occasional teacher who has not taught for at least twenty (20) full time equivalent days by June 30th of each year.

If you were unable to complete the required number of days as per your Collective Agreement, or renew online by June 30th of the school year, submit your reinstatement request via the link which the TDSB usually sends out in July to your TDSB email.

This must be done during the month of July. Employee Services will look at re-instatement requests during the month of August. The reinstatement request process closes on September 1st. Reinstatement is not guaranteed.

After September 1st, those OT members who did not complete their 20 days or did not do the OT renewal check and did not apply for re-instatement can only apply to be placed on the OT roster through TDSB Recruiting (see next page). Reinstatement is not guaranteed.

If you have been provisionally reinstated to the Secondary Occasional Teaching List, for at least twenty (20) full time equivalent days by June 30th you must teach for a minimum of ten (10) full time equivalent days between February 1 and June 30 to qualify for reinstatement to the Occasional Teacher List.

TDSB Compliance and Mandatory Training

Found in myPath on the TDSB Home Page

As an employee of the Board, you are required to participate and complete Board mandated and Ministry legislated compliance and mandatory training.

This training is governed by various Provincial acts and regulations as well as Board policies which prescribe the requirements for the Toronto District School Board to ensure training and instruction is provided to all employees:

- Accepting Schools Act: Ministry of Education Bill 13
- Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities ACT (AODA)
- Dealing with Abuse and Neglect of Students (PO45)
- Occupational Health and Safety Act
- Supporting Children and Students with Prevalent Medical Conditions in Schools (PPM 161)

Please access the <http://tdsbweb.tdsb.on.ca/ComplianceMandatoryTraining/> website to understand the training required for Occasional Teachers. Questions can be directed to the Occasional Teaching Office.

LTOs are not compensated for this. Daily OTs may receive half days pay for compensation. Retirees should note that this half day COUNTS toward your 50-day limit.

AND from the Ontario College of Teachers

Sexual Abuse Prevention Program

All Ontario Certified Teachers (OCTs) who were members in Good Standing as of January 3, 2022 are required to successfully complete the Sexual Abuse Prevention Program. For the 2024-2025 school year this may be a requirement.

Check the OCT website for further details.

Compliance Training, Payment and a special note for Retirees

An email will be sent from the TDSB on Compliance training.

Some sections from that email.

Dear Staff, As part of our work to support TDSB's Multi-Year Strategic Plan (MYSP), and in accordance with TDSB policies and legislation, all TDSB employees are required to complete annual Compliance Training by January 17, 2026. This includes courses assigned to you through myPATH.

- All courses within the training suite are accessible in myPATH and must be completed by Friday, January 17, 2025. Staff who hold multiple assignments regardless of whether it's one bargaining unit or multiple bargaining units, will only need to complete the courses in myPATH once. Failure to complete all required courses may result in a review of your employment status with the Board.

Staff in a Long-Term Occasional Teaching (LTO) assignment are expected to complete the training during their regular working hours. LTOs are expected to complete the training as part of their LTO assignment.

- Staff in an LTO assignment will not receive additional compensation for completing the training. All Occasional Teachers and Emergency Replacement Persons not on approved leave must complete compliance training during non-work hours.
- Staff may be compensated once all courses are completed. Compensation for completion of compliance courses will not be considered earned until all requirements are met, and the Board confirms and verifies completion.
- Compensation for completed courses will not count towards a day worked (e.g., payment will not count towards maintaining status on a list, benefits eligibility etc.).
- Staff who completed all the required courses during the 2023-2024 school year, will be required to complete all 2024-2024 annual, renewal or newly added courses.
- Staff may be compensated for a ½-day at the current OT or ERP rate once all courses are completed Occasional Teachers and Emergency Replacement Persons will be compensated at the Compliance Training 2024-2025 3 regular OT or ERP rate based on the compensation schedule listed below

Course Completed Oct 31, Payment on December 19

Course Completed Jan 17, Payment February 17

Retirees

Please note that if you are a Retiree receiving OTPP payments and you complete all required Compliance Training (2024-2025), either a half-day or a full day of work will be added towards your OTPP Re-employment limit for the school year.

The date allocated to your calendar for re-employment days is determined by the training completion date (the date you completed all required training in myPATH).

When calculating your days worked, please allocate this half-day or full-day based on your training completion date and not the payment date to ensure you do not exceed your OTPP re-employment limit.

The half or full day or compliance training does not count toward the 20 days needed to stay on the OT roster.

Questions related to OTPP Re-employment limit can be directed to:

Social Media and the TDSB

All OTs should be familiar with Operational Procedure PR735
<https://policies.tdsb.on.ca/uploads/files/live/89/2263.pdf>

Some Highlights from PR735

OBJECTIVE

- To support staff with professional use of social media.
- To provide a safe, positive and respectful online learning and working environment through professional use of social media in a manner that is compliant with applicable law and related TDSB policies and procedures.

Some relevant sections:

- 6.1.2. Staff may use social media to complement their teaching and/or professional development. TDSB employees must maintain a sense of professionalism when using social media in both their personal and professional lives. Communication on social media can shape public opinion about oneself, profession, school, the TDSB or public education generally.
- 6.1.3. Use of social media presents certain risks and carries with it certain responsibilities. Staff should remember that social media communications are qualitatively different from other forms of communication in terms of their permanence and potential for broad circulation. Communication and undertakings with stakeholders should be guided with integrity, respect, care, professionalism and trust.
- 6.1.4. The requirement of staff to interact with other stakeholders in a manner which reflects integrity, respect, care, professionalism and trust extends beyond the working day, and more specifically, into the realm of social media. TDSB staff are expected to maintain a formal, courteous and professional tone in all communications with all stakeholders to ensure that professional boundaries are maintained. Any and all social media use or online content must not include materials insulting, libelous, demeaning or offensive to the Board, students, staff or school communities, undermining the Board's reputation.
- 6.1.7. TDSB staff are prohibited from excess social media use during regular working hours for non-Board related purposes. 6.1.8. Sharing content on social media and other online platforms by staff during and outside of work hours that adversely affect the rights and privacy of Board staff, students or other school community members is prohibited.

Continued... Social Media and the TDSB

6.2.12.

When sharing opinions online, staff should be mindful of the potential impact those opinions may have on students, staff and the TDSB.

6.3.7.

The TDSB considers classroom social media accounts and sites as an extension of the classroom. What is inappropriate in the classroom should be deemed inappropriate online.

Non-Compliance

6.6.1. Individuals who fail to comply with TDSB policies and this Procedure may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

6.6.2. Inappropriate use of social media or online platforms may also result in criminal charges or civil actions, where appropriate. Inappropriate use of social media or online platforms may also result in criminal charges, a report of professional misconduct to a governing regulatory body (e.g., Ontario College of Teachers, Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers, etc.) or civil actions, where appropriate.

See the Policy Document from the Ontario College of Teachers. Page xx of this document of on their website.

Summary

Do not engage with students on social media-period. Asking a student to be a Facebook could/will result in employment termination. It has happened.

Posts on social media are not confidential. Do not say anything you would not say in front of the principal at a staff meeting.

Never take a picture of a student without permission

When using the TDSB email system always be professional in tone and language.

New to the OT Roster

Daily and Long-Term Work

Daily OT

Occasional Teacher. Every day you could be in a different school. Smart Find Express (SFE) is where you find daily OT jobs. However, over 50% of all jobs are pre-booked by teachers or schools who know you. More information can be found IN THE SFE section, pages 108 on.

LTO

Long Term Occasional. You are filling in for a contract teacher for at least 10 days and potentially for the balance of the year. All LTOs end at the conclusion of the year. You would be responsible for course preparation, marking, mark entry etc., everything that is required of a contract teacher. Most LTOs are advertised on the TDSB website under Job Postings-Long Term Occasional. More information can be found on pages 6xx-xx.

Rate of Pay

OTs: There is a fixed daily rate. See the Collective Agreement (CA) at the bottom of page 25.

LTOs: You are paid according to the contract teacher pay schedule. Your rate of pay is determined by experience and your qualification rating. There are 4 qualification ratings. The Qualification Evaluation Council of Ontario (QECO) determines your rating. QECO only deals with the teacher directly. It is YOUR responsibility to make sure your qualifications are reported to payroll for correct placement before the end of the LTO. LTOs count for experience. The Letter of Intent must be in before the end of the LTO. See the OTBU Collective Agreement. Yearly Requirements

By the end of June you must

- Complete your Annual Offence Declaration (AOD) form.
- Have completed 20 days as an OT or an LTO.
- Respond to a Board email sent on June 1st asking if you wish to stay on the OT roster. NOTE This link to the Renewal may be in the Monday TDSB Now email.
- Have completed all necessary compliance training courses.

Failure to do to 2 and 3 will result in your being dropped from the OT roster on July 1. During July you can apply for Re-instatement. Starting August 1, you then have to go through Recruiting to get place back on the roster.

Other areas of interest found in this Handbook: Benefits, leaves, PA days, Board policy etc., union activity, EI ARM etc.

Reimbursement of Expenses/OTBU Payment to Members

The OTBU does not issue physical cheques for reimbursement to cover expenses occurred on behalf of the OTBU or payment to members for certain related union functions. You will have the option of either E-transfer or Direct Deposit.

Contact the OTBU Office when in doubt.

The Classroom and the Occasional Teacher from the OSSTF to their Contract Teachers

“It is important to remember that occasional teachers are certified teachers and should be treated with the same respect as any other member of your staff. By the very nature of their work experience, occasional teachers can provide a great deal of insight into our educational system. It is in the interest of the classroom teacher, the occasional teacher and the students that everyone works together as an effective team”.

OSSTF/FEESO advises that classroom teachers:

- Prepare your students, when possible, for your absence.
- Be clear with your students about your expectations in the event that an occasional teacher is brought in to cover your class.
- When possible, let your teaching colleagues know when you are going to be away so that they can support the occasional teacher.

OSSTF/FEESO suggests that classroom teachers:

- Leave a clear seating plan on the desk and a class list.
- Leave instructions for any emergency procedures specific to your room or students.
- Leave washroom and break protocols.
- Leave information to indicate access to resource rooms, student success teachers or other supports as appropriate.
- Leave a name and room number for another teacher on staff who might provide support to the occasional teacher.
- Be clear in your expectations for the period/day. Set specific goals for the period as it helps to keep students motivated and on-task.
- Ask for summary notes from the occasional teacher.

After you have had an occasional teacher cover your class:

- Reflect on the summary notes from the occasional teacher.
- Follow-up with students who were disruptive for the occasional teacher.

If you encounter an Occasional Teacher in your workplace, make them feel welcome and offer them your support.

Retiring Teachers: Moving from the TBU to the OTBU

When a teacher submits their letter to tender their retirement, they are provided with an acknowledgment letter and asked if they are interested in being considered for placement on the Occasional Teaching List. An email address is provided for whom to contact at People and Culture (formally Employee Services). On receipt of that response email the prospective retiree is advised that their last principal will be contacted for a reference. The teacher's status with the Ontario College of Teachers must remain in Good Standing and their Annual Offence Declaration (AOD) must be complete.

From People and Culture (formally Employee Services)

"Retirees are sent a letter with the information for being considered for placement on the Occasional Teaching List. If interested, they can email their Certificate of Qualification to the Secondary Recruitment Office at maria.floros@tdsb.on.ca within 60 days of their retirement date."

Retiring Teachers: Moving from the TBU to the OTBU

If you decide to begin occasional teaching for the next school year, you will simply indicate that by completing the forms they supply to you, and your employment with the TDSB continues as an OT with all your records of teaching experience and salary grid information.

You are required to cover a minimum of 20 days per year in order to maintain your position on the OT roster. The Ontario Teachers Pension Plan (OTPP) allows you to work for a maximum of 50 days per school year without affecting your pension. If you go over 50 days, your pension could be affected. It is, however, possible to work more than 50 days. See page 28 and go to the OTPP website for more details. The OTBU cannot advise you on the work limit for retirees, consult the OTPP website.

In the past the OTPP and the Ministry of Education have increased the maximum days from 50 to 95. This was not done in 2023-2024. In any case each September the number is reset to 50. Any decision to increase the number of allowable days again will be made, if at all, later in the school year. There is no guarantee that in future years the allowable limit will be raised.

Your per diem rate as a daily OT is prescribed by our Collective Agreement (see below). Should you cover for one teacher's timetable for ten consecutive days or more, likely by that time to include prep and marking responsibilities, you would be deemed a Long-Term Occasional teacher(LTO) and your remuneration would be based on your position on the contract teachers salary grid. See page 40

Short Term Occasional Teachers

11.1.0. A Short-Term Occasional Teacher shall be paid a per diem rate according to the following schedule based on the number of full-time equivalent days worked.

Effective Date	0 – 100 Full-time Equivalent Days	After 100 Full-time Equivalent Days
September 1, 2022	250.62	275.68
September 1, 2023	258.14	283.95
September 1, 2024	279.30	291.76
September 1, 2025	286.28	299.05

Introduction

There is a limit on the number of days you can work in a school year after retirement without interrupting your pension. Here's what you need to know about the rules.

Who is a re-employed pensioner?

For pension plan purposes, we consider you a re-employed pensioner and subject to re-employment rules if you meet the following conditions:

- you have ceased employment in education;
- you have received a retirement pension payment from the plan; and
- you are then employed by or otherwise engaged, directly or indirectly, to provide services for compensation for an employer who participates in the pension plan.

This definition includes all re-employment, teaching or non-teaching, whether done on an employment, self-employment or third-party basis. If you aren't sure whether your employer participates in the Teachers' plan, ask your employer or contact us.

Also note that you can't forfeit your pay to circumvent the rules. If the position or duty entitles you to compensation and you decide to decline it, your service will still count toward the re-employment limit.

The limit

You can work directly or indirectly for a participating employer for 50 days in each school year you work following retirement without interrupting your pension. It is your responsibility to count the number of days you work.

Exceeding the limit

You can work until the end of the month in which you exceed your limit without affecting your pension. If you continue to work after the month in which you exceed the limit, even if for only part of a day, you will not receive your pension for that month.

Notify us immediately if you plan to work after the month in which you exceed the limit. We will suspend your pension for as long as you continue to work.

Example

Jocelyn plans to do some supply teaching in the upcoming school year. Here's a possible scenario to help illustrate what Jocelyn needs to do, and when, once she becomes re-employed.

	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	March	April	May	June
Days	0	12	10	6	8	14	0	11	5	3

Jocelyn's 50th day of re-employment would occur in February. She would exceed the limit in April.

Jocelyn can work until the end of April without affecting her pension. Since she will work additional days past April of that school year, she must notify us as soon as she exceeds the limit. We will suspend her pension beginning in May.

If she changes her mind and doesn't work beyond April of that school year, she does not need to contact us.

Exceeding the limit, cont'd

For more information on how your pension may be affected if you exceed the limit, review our summary at the end of this fact sheet. If you're still unsure, contact us.

Working in August

You may be asked to work in August to set up for the next school year.

Days you work in August will only be included in the subsequent school year if they are part of the existing calendar associated with your position. If they are not, and you have already exceeded your re-employment limit for the current school year, these days will count toward the current school year and your pension will be suspended in August.

If you continue working in September and beyond, your pension will remain suspended until you have a month with no re-employment service.

Failure to report

Under the Teachers' Pension Act, you must record the number of days worked in education. You are obligated to supply the details of your return to work in circumstances where we require additional information. If you fail to provide this information within a reasonable time after it is requested, your pension will be suspended. Any pension payments you were not entitled to receive must be returned, with interest.

What counts?

For pension plan purposes, your work after retirement is subject to re-employment rules if you:

- work in any capacity for
 - a school board in Ontario;
 - a designated private school;
 - a designated organization; or
 - the Ministry of Education*.
 - work as a teacher (includes, but is not limited to, tutor, guidance counsellor, librarian, vice-principal, principal or other supervisory officer positions)
 - under an authorized exchange program;
 - for an Ontario government ministry; or
 - for the Toronto and Region Conservation Authority.
 - work as a volunteer and you are entitled to compensation (including gifts or honorariums) for the position or activity (applies even if you don't accept payment to which you are entitled).
- * If you work, or have worked, in a non-teaching capacity for the Ministry of Education, contact us to determine how re-employment rules affect you.

Volunteer work

The re-employment rules may apply even if you don't get paid for your work. You can't forfeit your pay to circumvent the rules. If the position or duty entitles you to compensation and you decide to decline it, your service will still count toward the re-employment limit. Keep in mind that payments for services rendered may include gifts and gift certificates.

TDSB Network Login Credentials

Your User ID, to login to the TDSB network, are the last 6 digits of your employee number. If you are a new employee, your password will be set to a default password (also known as the Shared Secret Password). Your Shared Secret Password is the last four digits of your Social Insurance Number, two-digit day and two digit month of your birthday, followed by Tdsb (Case sensitive and 13 characters in total to meet password complexity requirements).

Example:

Your SIN: 123 456 789

Your birthday: 01 of February (February is the 02 month)

Your Shared Secret Password is: 67890102@Tdsb (Case sensitive and 13 characters in total).

Upon logging into the network using your Shared Secret Password (or when your password expires), you will be prompted to create a new password using the following guidelines:

Passwords must have a minimum length of 8 characters and contain special characters at least 3 of 4 categories for complexity:

- Uppercase letters
- Lowercase letters
- Numbers
- Non-alphabetic characters (such as !, $, #, %)

Passwords must not contain your first or last name and must be different than the last 5 passwords used.

Note: When your password has been reset to your Shared Secret Password, you will not be able to directly login to services such as the TDSB Wi-Fi until a new password has been created.

Managing your Password:

The TDSB offers Password Manager – a 24/7 easy, secure, and self-service application that allows you to reset or change your network password, unlock your account and update your question-and-answer profile.

Password Manager requires a one-time registration of answers to a set of challenge questions (also to access myINFO). OSSTF Benefit Eligibility for Long-Term Occasional Teachers

As was outlined in the recently ratified OSSTF Central Agreement for Teachers, OSSTF Benefits is pleased to advise that effective September 1, 2020, Long-Term Occasional Teachers (LTOs) from all OSSTF Districts will be eligible for participation in the OSSTF

Who is eligible?

LTO teachers are eligible for coverage under the OSSTF Benefits Plan during their LTO position if they are working on an assignment of 90 calendar days or longer.

When is coverage effective?

Coverage is effective on the first day of an eligible assignment.

When does coverage terminate?

Coverage ceases on the last day of an eligible assignment.

What if the length of the assignment is unknown, or originally scheduled to be less than 90 calendar days and then extended?

The member will be eligible to enroll in the plan retroactively to the first day of their assignment. Standard premium contribution rules will apply. If a premium is required, it will be retroactively billed.

Claims for eligible expenses incurred will be honoured retroactively to the first day of the LTO assignment. Members are encouraged to keep their health and dental receipts if they expect their assignment may be extended.

What if a 90-calendar day LTO position gets shortened unexpectedly?

If a 90-calendar day LTO position gets shortened unexpectedly, then coverage will cease when the LTO assignment ends. Members will not be required to repay any claims that were incurred during the term of the assignment.

What benefits are provided?

Basic Life and Accidental Death and Dismemberment Benefits (AD&D) are provided for all eligible members based on two times annual earnings. The cost of these benefits is 100% funded by the negotiated Board Paid FTE Contributions while a member is active or on a statutory leave.

Extended Health and Dental Benefits are voluntary. Members will have 31 days from the time they receive their enrolment invite to elect to participate in health and/or dental benefits. Member contributions towards these benefits are based on 6% of benefit premiums for members on a 1.0 Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) assignment and pro-rated member contributions for less than 1.0 FTE assignment. Sample member contributions are posted on the OSSTF Benefits website Member Contributions towards Health & Dental Benefits

Optional Life Benefits are also available on a 100% member-paid basis.

How does an eligible member enroll?

Boards send data updates to OTIP (the Third-Party Administrator of the OSSTF Benefits Plan) every two weeks. Information about members who have accepted a new LTO assignment is included in this data. When OTIP processes this data, an enrolment invite is initiated and sent via email to the member. This email is sent to the member's board assigned email address. We encourage members to also indicate a personal email address as their preference during the enrolment process which will allow any future communications to be sent to the member's personal email address.

All eligible members are automatically covered for the Basic Life and AD&D benefits based on two times annual earnings. Members have 31 days from the time that they receive this invite to enroll in the health and/or dental benefits. During the enrolment process members are advised of the monthly premium that they will be required to pay towards the benefits if they elect to participate. If elected, health and/or dental benefits are implemented retroactive to the first day of the eligible assignment. Eligible claims will be honoured and can be submitted after the benefits enrolment is completed and processed. Members who enroll in the health benefit will be provided with a benefits card indicating the OSSTF ELHT Plan # 200501, and the member's unique identification number. Temporary benefit cards can be printed by the member as needed by logging into My Benefits through OTIP.com.

What if I do not enroll in the health and/or dental benefits within the 31-day enrolment opportunity but wish to enroll at a later date?

If you experience a life change event during an eligible assignment, you may enroll in the health and dental benefits or make changes without evidence of medical insurability. These life change events may include:

- increase in FTE
- birth/adoption of a child
- marriage/common law qualification
- loss of spousal benefits

You will need to complete your enrolment or make changes within 31 days of the life change event.

Note: Eligibility requirements are based on the member being actively at work or while on a qualifying statutory leave.

If a member does not elect to participate in the plan within 31 days of receiving their initial invite but wishes to join the plan at a later date during an eligible assignment without a life change event taking place, they will be considered a late applicant. This means that dental benefits will be subject to a $200 maximum in the first 12 months of coverage, and that Extended Health Care benefit would have to be applied for with proof of good health (evidence of insurability). The Extended Health Care coverage will not be in place until the evidence of insurability is approved, and the coverage could be denied.

Note: These "late applicant" rules also apply to eligible dependents if application is not made within 31 days of initial eligibility or an eligible life change event.

Does coverage continue over the summer for an LTO member whose assignment concludes at the end of the school year, but who begins a new assignment in September?

If an LTO assignment of 90 calendar days or longer ends at the end of the school year, benefits coverage will also end on the last day of the school year. If the new LTO assignment starts in September and is 90 calendar days or longer, benefits will be reinstated in September when the new LTO assignment commences.

If a member has a permanent contract and an LTO assignment at the same time, do they get full benefits coverage (e.g. .333 contract and .667 LTO)?

The FTEs and salary for the contract and LTO position will be added together for the period of time that the member is active at both. Member contributions towards the health and/or dental benefits will be based on the combined FTE. If the member wishes to continue their health and/or dental benefits after their LTO assignment ends, member contributions towards these benefits will increase to be based on the contract FTE only.

If a teacher with an LTO assignment of 90 calendar day or longer goes on a statutory leave (e.g. maternity leave, sick leave, WSIB), will they be eligible for benefits while on leave?

Yes, they will be eligible for participation in the OSSTF Benefits Plan up to the last day of their LTO assignment. Member contributions towards the benefits for members on statutory leaves are the same as active members.

For an LTO teacher who ends and begins another eligible assignment, what happens to the claim history from their first assignment?

OTIP will send an email to this member to invite them to re-enroll in the OSSTF Benefits Plan. The member can use the same plan and OTIP ID numbers on their benefits card from the first assignment. Their claims history will follow them into their next assignment. Therefore, any claims submitted in the previous assignment will affect benefit maximums available in the new assignment.

OSSTF Occasional Teachers –Benefits

As outlined in the Letter of Agreement between the Ontario Public School Board Association (OPSBA) and the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF); "with respect to daily occasional teachers, where benefits coverage was previously provided by the Boards, payment-in-lieu will be provided".

Note: The benefit plan as outlined below is only available to those OSSTF Occasional Teachers (OT) who are active on the Secondary OT list for the 2024/2025 school year. If you did not comply with your Occasional Teaching Collective Agreement (completed the required days and/or renew online by June 30th), and you did not receive an approved reinstatement email in your TDSB email account from the Occasional Teaching Office, you are not eligible to the payment in lieu reimbursement.

Benefits for Daily Occasional Teachers

Where employee life, health and dental benefits coverage was previously provided by the boards for daily occasional teachers as terms of the local collective agreement in effect as of August 31, 2014, the boards shall continue to make a plan available with the same funding arrangement.

Eligible daily occasional teachers entitled to the lesser of a) the following table amounts and b) the actual benefit plan cost multiplied by the percentage of the employer co-pay existing in local collective agreements, to be used for the sole purpose of purchasing from among health, life and/or dental benefit plans:

Maximum Funding Amount (a)	Employer % Co-Pay (b)
$3,187	50%

These amounts shall be prorated for the portion of the year that the daily occasional teacher enrolls in the plan. Eligibility criteria for these amounts are based on the existing eligibility criteria of the 2012-2014 local collective agreements which is based on the number of days worked in the previous school year and varies by board. Payments shall be provided to the eligible daily occasional teacher on a monthly basis.

In addition, inflationary increases shall be provided in each of the following years:

September 1, 2023: 0.74%

September 1, 2024: 0.25%

September 1, 2025: 0.36%

Notwithstanding the aforementioned, where any daily occasional teacher chooses not to participate in any health, life or dental benefit plan, the school boards shall not provide any amount for those employees.

ELTH-Eligible Health and Life Trust

<https://www.osstfbenefits.ca/osstf-elht/#>

"The Parties have agreed to participate in the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation Employee Life and Health Trust "OSSTF ELHT" established October 6, 2016. The date on which the school boards and the bargaining units benefit plan commenced participation in the OSSTF ELHT shall be referred to herein as the "Participation Date". (page 9 of the CA)

ELHT Benefits

The Parties agree that since all active eligible employees have now transitioned to the OSSTF ELHT all references to existing life, health and dental benefits plans in the applicable local collective agreement for active eligible employees shall be removed from that local agreement.

Post Participation Date, the following shall apply:

Eligibility and Coverage

Permanent teachers, long-term occasional teachers and adult day school teachers shall be eligible for benefits subject to the rules as established by the ELHT.

Daily occasional teachers are not eligible, nor are other term teachers who do not meet the Trust's eligibility criteria.

Other members who were eligible for ELHT benefits in the 2018-19 school year shall continue to be eligible for benefits.

With the consent of the Central Parties, the OSSTF ELHT is also permitted to provide coverage to other active employee groups in the education sector with the consent of their bargaining agents and Employer or, for non-union groups in accordance with an agreement between the trustees and the applicable board.

Retirees who were previously represented by OSSTF, who were, and still are members of a board benefit plan as at the Participation Date are eligible to receive benefits through the OSSTF ELHT with funding based on prior arrangements.

No individuals who retire after the Participation Date are eligible.

OSSTF ELHT - OSSTF Benefits

You may also wish to contact other insurance providers in the marketplace to determine the plan that best meets your needs.

When an OSSTF OT employee who is receiving payment-in-lieu has a benefit rate increase mid-year or purchased additional coverage after the initial benefit sign up (i.e. travel insurance) the employee has the responsibility to notify the Board as soon as possible so the monthly payment-in-lieu amount can be adjusted accordingly (the lesser of: 50% of the new amount or $248.78* per month).

Please note: If at any time during the school year you acquire a permanent benefit eligible position, your payment-in-lieu will be ended automatically as you would then qualify for benefits under the new permanent position and you cannot be enrolled in two benefit plans at the same time.

If at any time during the school year you decide to terminate the benefit coverage with your insurance provider, you are required to notify the Board immediately at which point monthly payments-in-lieu will cease effective the end of that month.

Please note that while we will only request initial proof of enrollment; in order to ensure accuracy and compliance in the administration of this payment-in-lieu provision we will conduct random audits and may request all monthly receipts to ensure eligibility rules are adhered to. As such, please ensure that you retain receipts regarding proof of enrollment and payments for up to 18 months from the date of initial enrollment.

At this time communication via email is preferred. If you have any questions for your Benefit/Pension Assistant the Benefit/Pension Department Contact list is available on the TDSB website under Employee Services/Benefits/Contact us tab.

QECO

Qualifications Evaluation Council of Ontario

QECO/COÉQ serves teachers who are members of AEFO, ETFO, OECTA, and OSSTF by recognizing their commitment to education and their professional development.

All teachers who are members of the above-sponsoring affiliates need to be evaluated by QECO/COÉQ to obtain a salary category placement between Category A and Category A₄. A QECO/COÉQ evaluation is based on individual academic achievement, as determined by Program 5.

QECO/COÉQ only communicates with the teacher. After receiving a new QECO/COÉQ evaluation, it is a teacher's responsibility to submit the QECO/COÉQ Statement of Evaluation to his/her school board for salary category placement.

The QECO evaluation process is recognized by all school boards in the province. Board deadlines and practices with regard to QECO evaluations are determined by negotiation between teachers and their employers and will not affect the integrity or the speed of the evaluation.

Teachers must be aware of their collective agreement language pertaining to QECO deadlines. The onus is on the teacher to ensure he or she meets those deadlines. Turnaround time for an evaluation can vary from as short as one week to as long as three months, depending on whether or not all necessary documentation is provided by the teacher.

Bear in mind that QECO operates on a first-come-first-served basis and that the volume of applications influences the time required for an application to be processed. Also be aware that applications made without the required courses being completed, or without the appropriate supporting documents being submitted may result in lengthy delays or the application being returned.

REVIEW YOUR QECO PLACEMENT BEFORE THE END OF YOUR LTO.

12.5.0. It shall be the responsibility of the Long-Term Occasional Teacher to provide the Board with the teacher's certification rating statement and any supporting documents no later than the end of the long-term occasional teaching assignment.

The onus is on the teacher to meet these deadlines.

Turnaround time for an evaluation can vary from as short as one week to as long as three months, depending on whether or not all necessary documentation is provided by the teacher. QECO and the TDSB do not do this for you!

Go to the QECO website for additional information.

QEEO continued

To repeat:

QEEO only communicates with the teacher, and it is the teacher's responsibility to send this to the Board.

Failure to do so according to the timelines will result in your not being placed in the correct category and losing out on earned income.

All supporting salary documents (QEEO, OSSTF, or teaching experience letters) must be submitted before the last day of your LTO. If it is not possible to submit these documents before your last day, please complete the on-line Letter of Intent before the last day of your LTO to ensure your salary documents can be applied retroactively. You will have one year from the start of your LTO to submit any salary documents if the Letter of Intent has been submitted.

From the OTBU Collective Agreement:

12.5.0. It shall be the responsibility of the Long-Term Occasional Teacher to provide the Board with the teacher's certification rating statement and any supporting documents no later than the end of the long-term occasional teaching assignment.

Contract Teaching Experience

If you are in a Long-Term Occasional placement you are paid as a contract teacher, but you must ensure that your placement on the grid is correct. It is your responsibility to ensure that your employer, the TDSB, has all relevant supporting documents to make that placement. You will submit your QECO Rating Statement, or your OSSTF rating statement, as well as documents confirming any relevant teaching experience through the portal.

The "Letter of Intent" allows you to confirm that you WILL be submitting more documents when they become available.

This process is completed online and the link is found on the TDSBWeb, under People and Culture > Forms> Occasional Teachers> Change in Salary - Online Letter of Intent.

When you go through the links you will see the statement below, and you can check all that apply. It is important to complete this process, as it "holds" your place in the process. It means that you could have an LTO, finish the LTO, and still have the opportunity to submit documents to be considered for retroactive salary increases.

This is a statement of my intent to furnish proof of the following item(s) for a higher category placement on the salary grid (please check all that apply)

Whether or not the TDSB's site is accurate is difficult to know, but you should contact Hanna for confirmation that it is she who will ensure your QECO statement is properly submitted. Confirm with her also that it is she who will accept the documents related to your teaching experience.

It is always wise, when dealing with the TDSB, to maintain a timeline of when you send in documents/ emails, to whom they were sent (and when) and when you receive a response (if you do). Once you have exhausted all avenues of attempting to ensure you have submitted everything they require, but your pay remains unchanged, the record of your attempts to reach out to the TDSB will help support your case should it be required that we advocate on your behalf. However, first ensure that you have submitted the Online Letter of Intent and that you contact QECO for their timelines, and then contact your previous employers for records of your teaching experience.

LTOS - the salary grid vacation and holiday pay and Recognized teaching experience from the Collective Agreement

A Long Term Occasional Teacher shall be paid in accordance with the salary grid set out in the current collective agreement for the Board's secondary teachers but such payment shall be made only after the ratification of this Agreement and shall be retroactive to the beginning of the term of this Agreement.

Such payment shall be the amount set out in the grid less an amount equivalent to the total of vacation and statutory holiday pay to which the Occasional Teacher is entitled under applicable legislation.

Placement on the grid shall be in accordance with the Long-Term Occasional Teacher's recognized teaching experience and category placement following confirmation by the Board of the appointment to the long term occasional teaching assignment.

It is understood that this calculation applies to grid placement for long-term occasional teaching assignments only.
- Notwithstanding the formula set out above, an Occasional Teacher hired as a Long-Term Occasional Teacher on or before October 31 who works in that same assignment for the remainder of the school year shall be credited with a full school year of teaching experience.

- It shall be the responsibility of the Long-Term Occasional Teacher to provide the Board with the teacher's certification rating statement and any supporting documents no later than the end of the long-term occasional teaching assignment.

Parent Teacher, Staff Meetings and PA/PD days

From the Collective Agreement

LTOs

12.9.0

Long Term Occasional Teachers in alternate day or half day assignments shall not be required to attend parent teacher interviews, staff meetings, or Professional Activity/Development Days during the period for which they are not scheduled to work, without compensation at their LTO rate.

Daily OTs

Daily OTs are not expected to attend parent teacher interviews, attend staff meetings or PA/PD days. The OTBU organizes PA/PD events for OTs and attendance is voluntary. See the Pocket Calendar for dates and check emails from the OTBU for dates, activities and registration.

As an LTO you are expected from day one to prepare lessons, do assessments and evaluations and enter marks.

If you are an OT and in for a teacher for more than three days you might be expected to start preparing marks and doing evaluations. Contact the department CL for clarification and guidance.

Your Role as an OT

1. Arrive 15 mins before the start time of your job! Confirm job information by bringing the job number with you.
2. Collect attendance, important school info (i.e. emergency procedures, student safety plans), lesson plans, and KEYS
3. Take attendance and submit within first half hour of class starting. The TDSB uses powerschool.
4. Follow lesson plans where given, OR improvise with a back-up lesson plan/activity
5. IDEAS?? TedTalk + answer questions? Round table discussion/debate?
6. At the end of the class, ensure all students have left the class, close all windows and ensure classroom materials are returned and classroom is locked. Return materials you received at the beginning of the day to the main office.
7. DO NOT LEAVE STUDENTS UNATTENDED/UNSUPERVISED!
8. Leave a note for the regular teacher. THIS IS SO IMPORTANT IF YOU'D LIKE TO BE REMEMBERED AND CALLED BACK AGAIN IN THE FUTURE!
 - Include:
 - who was present? Who was absent?
 - what did you cover?
 - any concerns that students brought up that you couldn't answer (make-up test request, etc.)
 - behavioural notes for follow-up
9. Know the office phone number and the names/numbers of the VPs.

Marketing Yourself

School admin staff see and hear from many people every day and they won't always remember who they spoke to. Leave them a business card.

- Important Info to Include:
 - your first and last name
 - your teachables
 - your TDSB employee ID
 - email address and phone number to reach you

Don't be afraid to email the Office Admin (or OA) at your local schools to let them know you're available and interested. Attach a digital version of your card in your email!

Suggestion: Also email department heads/ACLs of the departments you'd work with. You can usually find this information on school websites.

NETWORK! It's all about who you know... now more than ever.

NOTE: Office Admin and teachers both have the ability to request specific OTs.

Responsibilities of the Occasional Teacher

In your position as an Occasional Teacher, your appearance and demeanour should present a positive role model to students. You are responsible for the safety and education of the students in your care. Upon arrival to a school, it is important that you ask for and familiarize yourself with:

- School's Code of Conduct
- School's Emergency Procedures (fire drills, evacuation, lockdown, emergency number)
- Safety Plans Procedures
- School Intercom System and/or Internal Phone System

You are to assume the duties of the teacher you are replacing. These include:

- Arriving at the school no later than the time specified on the job.
- Reporting to the main office upon arrival at the school.
- Accessing your classroom and supplies in a timely fashion.
- Checking in the main office for keys, lesson plans, attendance procedures, office referral forms, student safety plans, identified emergency procedure processes, lockdown procedures and student health issues. If these are not provided, ask the Administration in the Main Office.
- Providing appropriate work when no lesson plans have been left. Seek advice from the main office if you have questions or concerns.
- Maintaining the security of the classroom by locking unattended classrooms.
- Providing supervision for the students in your care at all times. DO NOT LEAVE STUDENTS UNATTENDED (e.g. in hallways, classrooms, etc.).
- Taking attendance of students in accordance with the school's established procedures.
- Following the lesson plans provided by the teacher.
- Reporting student behaviour issues or incidents of concern to the main office.
- Remaining in the school for the entire instructional day.
- Leaving a note for the regular classroom teacher that summarizes the work you were able to cover with students and reports any concerns with respect to student behaviour, etc.
- Before leaving school, return keys to the main office.
- Reporting student or staff accidents/injuries and/or violent incidents to the main office immediately. and ensuring that any necessary reports are completed.

For staff injuries refer to Appendix A.

PD Days, On-Calls and Staff Meetings

On-Calls for OTs

Our CA has always allowed for full-period on-calls for daily OTs. In the past it has been 'understood' that on-calls for OTs are one half of the period. The ongoing shortage of daily coverage has resulted in some schools assigning full-period on-calls for daily OTs. Schools generally try to avoid this, but to ensure that the FTE maximums (27 +5) and the POR maximums (14) for contract teachers are maintained, they have leaned heavily on OTs for coverage.

On-Calls for LTOs

Administrations normally follow the maximum for FTE teachers- 27+5 for LTOs but are also known to take advantage the vagueness of the language in the CA for limits for LTOs. From the CA:

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING RE: Long Term Occasional Teacher Workload Long Term Occasional Teachers will be assigned the same workload and be subject to equivalent working conditions to the permanent teacher they're replacing for the duration of the LTO assignment.

LTO Rollover

On the 10th day of doing the timetable of one teacher, the job becomes an LTO. Pay is retroactive to the start of the assignment. This should be automatic, but it is a good idea for the member to check with the office admin. to ensure their status is updated. The difference in pay may not show up for two or three pay cycles. During the 2023-2024 school year, it was taking up to 3 pay cycles for retro pay to be received.

OT/LTO and Sick Days:

Sick days are pro-rated for LTOs and appear on the pay stub. Approx. 1 per month, 11 in total for the year. Daily OTs have NO sick days.

PD Days for OTs and LTOs

For daily OTs PD day activities are optional and unpaid. The OTBU does organize two PD days-one in November and one in February. LTOs are expected to be with their schools PD activity. PD days do not interrupt a LTO.

OTs and LTOs and Staff Meetings:

Daily OTs are not required to do staff meetings or parent/teacher interviews. Admin. may ask you but you do not have to say yes. That is your call. LTOs are expected to attend staff meetings and parent/teacher interviews.

If your LTO ended on Friday and you are now a daily OT at the same school that is acceptable. If you are in for the same teacher, same timetable, that is different.

CA p.47 12.9.o Long Term Occasional Teachers in alternate day or half day assignments shall not be required to attend parent-teacher interviews, staff meetings, or Professional Activity/Development days during the period for which they are not scheduled to work, without compensation at the LTO rate.

Sick Days/Religious Days for OTs and LTOs

For Daily OTs

Daily OTs do not receive sick days or religious days.

Sick Days or LTOs

The sick day entitlement is 11 sick days for the year and 120 short term disability days. LTOs accumulate approximately 1 sick day per month of the LTO worked. You may be asked for a doctor's note. Every month you are in an LTO, you accrue 1.1 sick days that pay you 100% and 12 Short term disability days that pay you 90%.

From the Collective Agreement:

"A long-term occasional teacher who works more than one LTO assignment in the same school year may carry forward sick leave and STLDP from one LTO to the next, provided the assignments occur in the same school year." (p.13 CA, f) iii

In addition to the 11 100% paid sick days, you have access after that to up to 120 90% paid short term disability leave days for the year.

If you need to take more than a couple days off in a row, you would be wise to obtain a doctor's note. The note should not go into details on the diagnosis; it should simply state something to the effect that you need time off from work due to an issue of physical or mental health. The note would go to the school admin if the school admin requests it. You may also wish to inform your admin if you need to be away for more than a few days, so the school can get sufficient OT coverage. If you go on sick leave as an LTO, the paid sick leave won't continue past the end of your assignment.

Infectious Disease Emergency Leave form. This can be found on the TDSB website (after you login). Under Employee Services, select Forms then on the left-hand side select Occasional Teaching. You'll find the IDEL form there. You may be eligible for up to 3 days at $200/day.

Religious Days

From the Collective Agreement TDSB-OSSTF-OTBU-2022-2026-Collective-Agreement-\(1\).pdf

Miscellaneous Leave

14.1.0 Miscellaneous Leave up to a maximum of five days per school calendar year may be granted by the Director to a Long-Term Occasional Teacher in an assignment with the Board without loss of salary for the purpose of .

d) observing religious holy days (a limit of two in total),

P.A. Days for OTs and LTOs

OTs

PD days for daily OTs are unpaid. The OTBU organizes two PD events, one in October and one in November. Attendance is voluntary.

LTOS

As long as the member has been in an LTO assignment for at least 10 days, same teacher-same timetable, they are paid for the PD day provided they are present for the activity. This is usually compulsory for LTOs.

On-Calls

OTs

Daily OTs can be assigned full period on calls. There is no upper limit on the number per year. Schools try to avoid giving full-time on-calls to OTs but it happens more often than it should given the on-going shortage of OTs.

LTOS.

In our Collective Agreement there is a 'Letter of Understanding' that LTOs be given the same workload as contract teachers. Contract teachers do have a limit on the number of on calls they can do in a given school year.- 27 half period on-calls and five additional supervision periods.

A "Letter of Understanding" is an agreement between two or more parties outlined in a formal document. It is not legally binding but signals the willingness of the parties to move forward with a contract.

Working with School Support Staff

Please be aware that there is a host of non-teacher personnel employed by the Board to support the learning needs of students in school settings across the system, at both the elementary and secondary levels. These positions include but are not limited to:

- Educational Assistants (EAs)
- Special Needs Assistants (SNAs)
- Food Program Assistants
- Early Childhood Educators (ECEs)
- Child and Youth Workers (CYWs)
- Child and Youth Counselors (CYCs)

In your role as an Occasional Teacher, you may have occasion to interact, either directly or indirectly, with many of these support staff. The expectation of your employer, and the Education Act, is that you will work cooperatively and collegially with such personnel to provide the appropriate level of support for students assigned to your care and instruction.

Should you have any questions or concerns regarding respective responsibilities of teachers and support staff, you are encouraged to speak to a school administrator or consult with your union executive in a timely manner.

Best Practices for the Occasional Teacher

Some common sense approaches when working with students.

1. If you must speak to a student alone after class, keep it short and professional. Stay in view of the hall. Stand by the door. Have another teacher nearby.
2. Maintain your “personal space”. Don’t let students crowd around you or your desk.
3. Do not spend time with students outside of your professional responsibilities. Participate only in school board endorsed activities with students.
4. Maintain professional communication and relationships with students, parents and colleagues. Think carefully about what you say, write, or post electronically. Your words and gestures can be misinterpreted, to your detriment.
5. Do not share phone numbers, email addresses or personal websites with students.
6. Do not take photos of students, unless authorized by the principal.
7. Do not befriend students on any social media websites. This could result in termination of employment.
8. Do not offer students rides in your private vehicle in contravention of the Board’s transportation protocols.
9. Be extremely cautious about touching students. Unnecessary physical contact with students is fraught with professional risks. Best advice; never touch a student for any reason in any way.
10. Call for assistance from the office before a situation gets out of control. Explain that you are concerned that the situation seems to be escalating and that you are being proactive in heading off problems. Know the office phone number before you head to class.
11. Document anything that happens during the day which seems slightly out of the ordinary. Keep your notations to the facts and write down the essential W’s - who, what, when, where and that other W – witnesses. Keep a copy of your notes.
12. Be familiar with the school’s procedures governing student conduct, progressive discipline, office referrals, emergencies, and the like.
13. Raising your voice is not an effective classroom management strategy.
14. Keep the classroom door open, if possible.

Classroom Management

Occasional Teachers are expected to manage a classroom in accordance with the duties of a teacher as outlined in the Education Act and Regulations, and Toronto District School Board Policies and Procedures.

Good Classroom Management Includes:

1. Greeting students as they enter the classroom.
2. Placing yourself where you can see and be seen until the class has settled down (the first few minutes of an assignment are crucial in setting the tone for the day).
3. Using the attendance procedure to establish a rapport with the class.
4. For attendance, the students sign their name on a sheet of paper.
5. Using appropriate proximity and eye contact strategies.
6. Presenting a positive attitude including respect for students.
7. Delegating simple tasks to students.
8. Getting students' attention quickly and then waiting for them to listen actively to you before giving instructions.
9. Limit movement of students, as appropriate, to complete the assignment while they are working – this is where the re-teaching occurs for students who need more help.
10. Approaching students and situations in a problem-solving manner and positive tone of voice to avoid escalating a confrontational situation.
11. Ensuring students are kept busy with constructive work related to their studies.
12. Involving students in the lesson by encouraging active participation.
13. Calling the school administration (Principal or Vice-Principal) before a difficult situation escalates into a crisis.
14. Calling the office if referring a student to the office for discipline, describing the problem and advising the office that a student is on the way. Inquire about any school and/or Board forms required in such situations.

Never Leave Students Unattended

Handling Common Situations

1. No keys? Ask OA for caretaker's info.
2. If you are not given keys all the OTBU office at 416-423-3600.
3. Need to go to the washroom during class time? Call the office to send someone to your class or flag a school based safety monitor down. Do not leave the students unattended.
4. Students' behaviour escalating? Approach situation with humor where appropriate to de-escalate, have a private conversation with the student outside of the class, otherwise call office for a school based safety monitor to assist.
5. Do not raise your voice...
6. ...or try to physically block a student from leaving the classroom.
7. Have the office phone number nearby and call the office. If an issue arises later, resulting in a meeting with the administration. Their first question will be, "Did you call the office for assistance?"
8. A Student wants to leave early. Call the office and a school-based safety monitor will come and escort them to the office to sign out.
9. In most cases it is best to leave the door open.
10. Remember you are there to supervise the class. Be alert and if possible, move around the class.
11. Stay calm. Do not react to provocation negatively.
12. While it is always a good idea to leave a note for the teacher on how the day went, always leave a note of any unusual incidents and if serious let the office know before leaving the school for the day.

Sometimes teachers are called to a meeting with the administration about something that happened in class a day or even weeks later. Having left a note for the teacher, knowing that you called the office to ask for assistance and reported the incident at the end of the day will be helpful.

Ten De-Escalation Tips

1. Be Empathetic and Nonjudgmental When someone says or does something you perceive as weird or irrational, try not to judge or discount their feelings. Whether or not you think those feelings are justified, they're real to the other person. Pay attention to them
2. Respect Personal Space If possible, stand 1.5 to three feet away from a person who's escalating. Allowing personal space tends to decrease a person's anxiety and can help you prevent acting-out behavior .
3. Use nonthreatening nonverbals The more a person loses control, the less they hear your words—and the more they react to your nonverbal communication. Be mindful of your gestures, facial expressions, movements, and tone of voice.
4. Avoid overreacting Remain calm, rational, and professional. While you can't control the person's behavior, how you respond to their behavior will have a direct effect on whether the situation escalates or defuses. Positive thoughts like "I can handle this" and "I know what to do" will help you maintain your own rationality and calm the person down
5. Focus on feelings Facts are important, but how a person feels is the heart of the matter. Yet some people have trouble identifying how they feel about what's happening to them. Watch and listen carefully for the person's real message. Supportive words like these will let the person know that you understand what's happening.
6. Ignore challenging questions Answering challenging questions often results in a power struggle. When a person challenges your authority, redirect their attention to the issue at hand. Ignore the challenge, but not the person. Bring their focus back to how you can work together to solve the problem.
7. Set limits If a student's behavior is belligerent, defensive, or disruptive, give them clear, simple, and enforceable limits. Offer concise and respectful choices and consequences. A person who's upset may not be able to focus on everything you say. Be clear, speak simply, and offer the positive choice first.
8. Choose wisely what you insist upon. It's important to be thoughtful in deciding which rules are negotiable and which are not. If you can offer a person options and flexibility, you may be able to avoid unnecessary altercations
9. Allow silence for reflection We've all experienced awkward silences. While it may seem counterintuitive to let moments of silence occur, sometimes it's the best choice. It can give a student a chance to reflect on what's happening, and how he or she needs to proceed. Silence can be a powerful communication tool.
10. Allow time for decisions When a student is upset, they may not be able to think clearly. Give them a few moments to think through what you've said. A student's stress rises when they feel rushed. Allowing time brings calm.

Preparing for your Job COVID –Edition

MOE and TDSB COVID restrictions for the 2025-2026 school year have been lifted. The list below was for the 2021-2022 school year. Check the OTBU D12 website and the TDSB website for updates.

Here are some things to consider:

1. Call the office and ask what entrance to enter from (there are staff designated entrances/exits!).
Wear a mask of your own until you get to the school.
2. Carry as minimal items as you can-- minimize the things you need to disinfect at the end of the day.
3. School will provide you with a board-approved mask, (face shield if requested). Keep mask on at all times while in the school except to drink water from your water bottle. Sanitizer should be available to use in the classroom already, if not, call the office from your classroom and ask for one.
4. Don't expect to mingle in the hallways :(-- greet without contact, keep 2m distance away for your own protection and others'.
5. Wash hands frequently and keep frequently touched surfaces clean--sanitize your phone screens, keys, etc. (Caretakers wipe down high touch surfaces in the school twice a day).
6. Consider planning some contactless activities to run with students. :
7. When working with a student, if you need to get within 2m of them, USE YOUR FACESHIELD + MASK. #safetyfirst
8. Only 1 person in the staff washrooms at a time.

Long Term Occasional– LTO

Two Types

What is a LTO?

When you are in for the same teacher, same job for a minimum of 10 days. LTOs are paid at the contract teacher grid rate, count towards experience and can access other benefits (see the CA).

Types of LTOs—Two Types

1. Rolling LTOs

You start a job as a daily OT, and if you work for 10 days straight for the same role/teacher, you will qualify for LTO pay for the duration of that assignment, retroactive to your first day in that position.

This can happen as an OT and will count as LTO experience for you to get onto the LTO list (no interview required anymore for this). On the 10th day let the office know. While it should be automatic sometimes it isn't. This is important because on the 10th day you are paid at the TBU grid rate retroactive to your first day.

2. Posted LTOs

When a school knows that a teacher will be absent for a least 10 days or more– months or the full year, the school will post (advertise) for the position. Posted LTOs require an interview. LTO jobs are found on the TDSB website under the People and Culture tab.

NOTE: In both cases the LTO does not kick in until the 10th consecutive day. Should you take a 'sick day' before the 10th day of the LTO you have interrupted the LTO and the job re-sets to zero.

What is needed to apply to an LTO posting:

1. The completed LTO application form. (see People and Culture tab> Long Term Occasional for more info)
2. Up to date Cover Letter, Resume and References
3. Up to date College of Teachers Certification of Qualification
4. If you have been placed on the LTO list, you must submit the LTO Certification letter you received from Employee Services for this application to be considered complete.

Where can I find LTO jobs?

- TDSB Staff Site Homepage under the People and Culture tab
- Must be on the "LTO List" to apply to first-round postings (August?)
- Come September when second round postings go up, you can apply as an OT (the posting will note whether you are able to apply or not).
- Job postings usually close Fridays, calls for interviews usually go out the following week, but sometimes they can come two weeks later.
- You have 24-48 hours' notice (sometimes less) about interviews.
- Calls for interviews can be by email or by phone call.
- Ensure your contact info is up to date!
- If you are not available at that time say so! They will accommodate you at another time.

Applying to LTO Postings

Ensure that when you are applying to an LTO Posting that you submit a complete application package to the school. An incomplete package may result in not being considered for an interview. A complete package includes:

- The completed LTO Application Form
- • Up to date Cover Letter, Resume and References
- • Up to date College of Teachers Certificate of Qualification
- If you are applying by email, please submit your documents as one attachment which should include all the required items detailed above.

The Interview Process

- If you apply and receive an interview you will hear back if you were successful or not.
- If you are successful and offered a job (after they submit your name to Employee Services and can offer it to you may begin working immediately at LTO pay.
- After 10 days they will submit your paperwork to transition fully into LTO pay. This can take up to two months for LTO pay to kick in but you will be paid back.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED TO ESTABLISH SALARY DURING a LTO

Correct Placement on the LTO salary grid requires:

Your most current rating statement, from QECO (page 50), and rating statement covering letter Recognized teaching experience.

Complete the online Letter of Intent form (see Appendix F)

Log on to the TDSBweb

Under Employee Services, click on Forms then Occasional Teaching

Click on Change in Salary - Online Letter of Intent link to access the form. The Online Letter of Intent must be completed prior to the end of the LTO.

You must complete the online Letter of Intent before the end of the LTO to retroactively receive pay. If you do not submit the letter of Intent online before the end of your current LTO, your new rating statement will not be effective until your next LTO.

A. Qualifications (Rating Statement)

Elementary - QECO Statement of Evaluation

> Your LTO salary placement will be at Category A1 until you send a copy of your QECO Statement of Evaluation to the Employee Services, Occasional Teaching Records.

Please refer to page 33 for contact information

Note: QECO deals with teachers directly. It is your responsibility to contact QECO and inform the TDSB of any changes.

B. Proof of Recognized Teaching Experience

Provide evidence that you were certified to teach during those times.

Provide evidence of teaching experience with any school board or ministry inspected private schools.

Contact previous boards to request a statement of teaching experience on official board letterhead showing the start and end dates of employment (day/month/year) and whether contract or LTO, full or part-time experience.

An ALTO is assigned to go to the same school every day but maybe required to cover any teacher who is absent that day not just one teacher as in a regular LTO. Could be one day for teacher A or four days for Teacher B or 10 days for teacher C. Pay and benefits are the same as if it was a LTO. Anyone who is placed into an ALTO teaching position will be paid as a Long-Term Occasional Teacher and will receive all of the entitlements of a Long-Term Occasional Teacher.

The OTBU for years has proposed that the TDSB set up an ALTO program . During the 2021-2022 school year the TDSB ran a pilot program testing the feasibility of ALTOs. It was on hold.

Starting in the spring of 2025 ALTOs were being advertised in the LTO job postings

Expectations for school board hiring policies

Policy/Program Memorandum 165

The Ministry of Education has replaced Regulation 274 with Policy/Program Memorandum that will guide the Board's decisions on LTO hiring. For more information regarding the PPM, please click on the link below:

<https://www.ontario.ca/document/education-ontario-policy-and-program-direction/policyprogram-memorandum-165>

Some excerpts from Memorandum 165

All school boards in Ontario's publicly funded education system are expected to establish fair, consistent, and transparent policies for teacher hiring. School boards' requirements and selection criteria for hiring should be clearly laid out and publicly available on their websites.

School boards are expected to include the following inter-dependent components in their teacher hiring policies:

- qualifications and merit
 - diversity, equity, and human rights
 - employment mobility
 - fairness and transparency
- monitoring and evaluation

Teacher hiring policies must adhere to the qualification requirements set out in Regulation 298, "Operation of Schools – General". School boards should also rely on the following when developing their selection and evaluation criteria:

- valuing applicants' demonstrated experience and commitment to creating a safe, inclusive, equitable, accessible, and high-quality learning environment; providing the best possible program as determined by the principal, and considering applicants demonstrated:
 - teaching commitment
 - experience or time spent in a particular school
 - suitability for a particular assignment
- valuing applicants' additional experiences, skills, backgrounds, lived and work experience responding to school and board priorities based on clearly defined criteria, including qualifications

School boards should develop the following effective practices to remove barriers and gaps in teacher hiring. To implement the expectations outlined in this memorandum and to provide that their policies remain relevant, school boards are expected to establish a mechanism, or use existing mechanisms, to collaborate with local teachers' federations and associations.

TDSB new LTO Hiring Policy, effective January 31st , 2022

28.2.0. Access to Long Term Occasional Teaching Positions

28.2.1. When at least 15 school days prior to its commencement, it is known, to the person designated by the employer, that an occasional teaching assignment will become a long term assignment, the assignment shall be advertised on a dedicated telephone line and/or the Board's Intranet for a period of four days. As soon as administratively feasible, such assignments shall be advertised on the Board's Intranet.

After which time, interviews will be held by the appropriate staff to select the person to fill the long-term assignment.

If it is determined, from the interview process, that no available Occasional Teacher is acceptable, then the Employer will appoint a person to the assignment.

To fill a long-term occasional teaching assignment with a person, other than an Occasional Teacher already on the Occasional Teacher List, permission must be received from the Central Co-ordinating Principal Secondary Teaching or designate, prior to offering the position.

Who Can apply for LTO Postings?

LTO postings are open to all TDSB secondary occasional teachers who hold the required qualifications for the position.

How do Applicants Apply?

All applicants must submit a complete job posting application package to the Principal of the school. A complete application package includes:

- A completed LTO application form
- Cover Letter
- Resumé and References*
- OCT Certificate of Qualification and Registration.

Application packages should be submitted via email only this year while school sites are not fully accessible. Updates have been made to the LTO Posting site with this information for Occasional Teachers.

Interviews for position(s) will be arranged by the principal as per the steps below. Only those applicants selected for interviews need to be contacted.

In selecting teachers for interviews, boards should, where applicants have demonstrated their ability to meet the mandatory requirements (as outlined in detail below), consider:

- diversity and equity;
- merit and additional qualifications and experience; and
- early-career educators.

Qualifications and Merit

In assigning or appointing a person to a teaching position (e.g., daily supply, occasional, long-term occasional, permanent) school boards should:

Consider merit to include formal qualifications and credentials as well as professional skills and aptitudes demonstrated through a fair and transparent hiring process.

Require hiring panels to review additional qualifications, including lived experiences, skillsets, backgrounds and varied work experience that may be considered valuable to the position (e.g. unique perspectives of under-represented groups, such as Indigenous peoples, Black or other racialized people, people with a disability, etc., the ability to speak multiple languages in addition to English or French, working with diverse communities locally or abroad, ability to lead a school band, or professional experience outside of the classroom).

Maintain due regard for the provision of the best possible program as determined by the principal, throughout the hiring process, with evidence of:

- teaching commitment to students;
- experience/time spent in a particular school;
- suitability for a particular assignment; and
- responsiveness to local needs based on clearly-defined criteria including qualifications.

Promoting Equity and Diversity

Having a diverse teaching workforce is vital to serve the needs of all students and communities within the board. Inequitable representation of historically disadvantaged groups in the workforce can lead to inequities in the educational experience and outcomes for excluded or marginalized students.

Equity and diversity are critical factors that can be applied in the interview and hiring process as outlined in the Candidate Selection section of this policy.

Boards should consider whether Special Programs under the Ontario Human Rights Code may be implemented to address the effects of systemic discrimination on identified groups based on Code grounds.

Enhanced Teacher Employment Mobility

To better enable teachers to exercise mobility between positions school boards shall grant an interview to a relocating permanent teacher who applies to be placed on the long-term occasional teachers list if that teacher is currently or has been employed by a public-school board in Ontario within the last calendar year.

Early-Career Educators

An early-career educator is someone who completed an initial teacher education program within the last five years. Early career educators are important to long-term succession planning and should be considered as outlined in the Candidate Selection section of this policy.

Conflict of Interest

School boards shall give due regard throughout the hiring process to avoid any conflicts of interest, including nepotism and favoritism.

In this section, "relationship" means any relationship of the employee to persons of:

their family whether related by blood, adoption, marriage, or common-law relationship; an intimate and/or financial nature during the preceding five years; or past or present private interests in connection with a candidate or applicant where their involvement in the hiring process could conflict with their duties.

No employee of the Board shall participate in, or influence the outcome of, the hiring of a person with whom the employee has a relationship.

Where the person with whom the employee has the relationship is one of multiple applicants or candidates in a competitive hiring process, the employee shall not participate in, or influence the outcome of, any aspect of that hiring process.

Where an employee's duties would otherwise require them do something that is or may be prohibited by this section, the employee shall, immediately upon being made aware of the conflict of interest, disclose the nature and extent of the conflict to their supervisor. If the supervisor determines that a prohibition in this section applies, the supervisor shall then assign these duties to another person who does not have a conflict of interest, and shall give any further direction to the employee that the supervisor considers necessary to protect the integrity of the hiring process.

Feedback for Unsuccessful Candidates:

If unsuccessful candidates wish feedback, they should contact the Principal of the school that had the Long Term Occasional Teaching position for which they had applied, and the chair of the interview team will set an appointment for feedback.

Rights of unsuccessful candidates

Following an interview, if a teacher is not appointed or assigned to a long-term assignment, the teacher is entitled to feedback, on request, to meet with the person or panel that conducted the interview to discuss:

- their performance during the interview;
- measures the teacher could take to enhance their professional qualifications; and
- other ways to improve their chance of being successful in a similar interview in the future.

When should I seek for union assistance?

Contact the OTBU Office:

- You have been asked to a meeting with the administration on a matter that is, or may be disciplinary;
- If you believe there has been a violation of any of the provisions of the Collective Agreement, or If you have a Health and Safety concern.

NOTE: Administrators are contractually obligated to inform you of your right to union representation where the administration can reasonably expect that a situation that they wish to meet with you about could lead to disciplinary action. Never agree to attend such a meeting without contacting the OTBU first and talking with an OTBU executive member. 416-423-3600

Call the Union office to speak with an Executive Officer when:

- You are told by the administration that you are being sent home;
- As soon as you become aware of an accusation against you of inappropriate touch, physical assault or sexual assault by a colleague, student or parent of a student;
- BEFORE speaking with police or the children's aid society, if you are asked to do so;
- If you receive notification of a complaint filed against you at the College of Teachers;
- If you are requested or required to speak to police about anything work-related;
- If you need to make use of the Work Refusal procedure under the Health and Safety Act;
- If you wish to arrange for mediation due to a conflict you are having with another member of OSSTF;
- When you are injured or have a work-related accident.

NOTE: You may excuse yourself from any meeting to make this contact and you can refuse to speak with administration or police until you have spoken with an Executive Member and received advice. Politely explain that you are happy to cooperate, but you would first like to speak to your Union representative.

You are asked to have a meeting with admin. and told to contact your union

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN ISSUES ARE INVESTIGATED

IMMEDIATELY:

When a principal wants to discuss an issue that may lead to professional discipline, express your willingness to cooperate, but say that you cannot comment until you have contacted the OTBU.

It is the principal's responsibility to remind you of your right to Union representation.

Phone and email the OTBU office and urgently request representation. 416-423-3600 otbu.office@d12.osstf.ca

For your own records, write down your recollections of the day & class in question (if known), or the possible interactions you think may be the subject of the investigation.

Do not talk to colleagues or anyone else about the situation, because they could be required to be witnesses as a result.

THE INVESTIGATION PROCESS:

If the issue requires Police or CAS involvement, the principal will contact them.

CONTACT the OTBU ASAP

Opportunity To Respond Meeting (OTR)

The meeting will take place at the school or virtually, usually within one week of notification that there will be an investigation. Along with you, two OTBU representatives and two administrators will be present. The administrator will already have conducted an investigation at the school level with the parties involved or witnesses. At the OTR, they will ask you approximately 10 prepared questions, to get your perspective on the alleged issue. Notes will be taken by admin and the Union. A private caucus room will be available for us to use if we feel it would be helpful to pause the meeting for a short while in order to have a discussion.

Outcome Meeting

At this meeting you will be informed of what sort of discipline, if any, you are receiving. There will be two administrators and one OTBU representative with you. There is little, if any, opportunity for discussion at this point.

If the OTBU feels there is cause to object to the outcome decision, we may take action on your behalf to mitigate the discipline.

TYPICAL DISCIPLINE:

- Verbal Counsel/Caution (professional advice on how to handle the situation differently next time).
- Letter of Counsel aka as Letter of Expectations: same as above in letter form, and remains with the school
- Letter of Discipline expressing which policies were violated, which goes to the Board. There may be several outcomes outlined in the letter: a block from the school for a specified period of time, requirement to take a short workshop to update your skills/knowledge, suspension without pay for a specified period of time, and in the worst case (rare), termination of employment.

WHAT YOUR OTBU REPRESENTATIVE WILL DO FOR YOU:

- Inform you about what to expect in the process and attend meetings with you. Be certain the proper procedures are followed and take notes.
- Pause the meeting to caucus privately if necessary/desired by either of us.

TIPS:

Be on time and turn off your cell phone ringer.

Be honest and professional.

Be brief; just answer the question, without elaboration.

Stay away from blame (of staff, students, administrators, colleagues, parents, community members).

Bring water.

Show that you have an understanding of the perspective of all parties involved in the issue.

IT'S OKAY:

- To become emotional (this is a highly stressful situation for you).
- To say, honestly, "I don't remember", "I don't know", "I respectfully disagree", "I need to think about that for a minute".
- To ask for a break to caucus privately with your union reps.

The last question will be "Is there anything you would like to add? Prepare an answer ahead of time. Mention your time with the Board, the number of years with the TDSB- never had this happen before, me a culpa, I like coming to this school, etc. Blow your own horn.

The OTBU Executive is sensitive to the concerns of our members, and we have found that some members appreciate the support offered through the EAP. If you find that you are feeling stressed by this process, now or in the future, we remind you that free confidential personal counselling is available through the Employee and Family Assistance Plan by calling 1-800-387-4765. Counselling can help to release emotions, learn from a situation, and move forward

A Special Note for Retirees

Retirees:

If you have reached your 50-day limit be aware that attending an OTR is considered by the OTPP 'employment', even if you are NOT paid. In that case the OTR would have to be scheduled for the following year.

Teachers requesting discipline removal, as outlined in the collective agreement provisions or due to Minutes of Settlement, are asked to submit their requests in writing to the following address:

DisciplineSunset@tdsb.on.ca for review of their request and action as necessary.

Ten reasons [plus one] why members have been called into an Opportunity to Respond (OTR) Meeting

Not a complete list by far

1. Making inappropriate comments in class

For example, expressing opinions that are contrary to TDSB policy. You may be an anti-vaxxer, but you can't express that opinion in class. You do not have freedom of speech in a classroom; you are a TDSB employee and so must reflect their policies.

2. Failing to follow work left by the teacher

Not always possible, but if you can't, leave a note with an explanation.

3. Touching a student

No matter how innocent, i.e. tapping a student on the shoulder to remind them that they left their phone on the desk or hugging a student for their achievement- never ever. Try to maintain at arm's length at all times.

4. Improper use of social media

Never, ever try to contact a student or ask to contact a student using social media or personal emails. Social media posts, in any form, are not private; never mention anything work related even in private emails..

5. Commenting on student's dress

Even positive comments can be mis-interpreted by students. Unless to, quote a principal, "Were the nips showing?" -anything goes.

6. Falling asleep in class

This should be obvious, but it happens. Once a teacher was photographed sleeping at the desk and the picture ended up in the pages of a Toronto newspaper.

7. Using inappropriate language in class

Being sarcastic, raising your voice, telling a risqué joke or using 'street' language.

8. Making a student feel uncomfortable

You did nothing wrong but the student was made to feel uncomfortable, i.e. not using the student's preferred pronoun or standing too close. It can be anything. Provincial law states that 'if a student is made to feel uncomfortable' that is enough for an OTR. What can make a student uncomfortable? Almost anything.

9. Leaving a school during the day or before the end of the day without informing the office

Always inform the office if you need to leave the school during the day.

10. Blocking a student from leaving or returning to class

If there is an issue, call the office and ask for a VP or hall safety monitor to come to the class. If no one is available, inform the office at the end of the day what happened and leave a note for the teacher.

Plus one

11. You did nothing absolutely nothing wrong and have no idea why the meeting is being called

It could be anything i.e. a student or parent of a student misheard or misinterpreted, something you did or said. There have been meetings with no specific allegation, and the teacher did everything correctly, but the school has to follow the MOE guidelines, provincial law and TDSB policy. All allegations must be investigated.

Ontario College of Teachers

Teachers must be members in good standing of the Ontario College of Teachers in order to teach in the Province of Ontario.

Occasional Teachers working for the Board are responsible for remitting their annual fees directly to the Ontario College of Teachers no later than April 15 of each year. Fees cover the period from January 1 to December 31. The College usually mails a reminder to you. Current fees are $200.

A penalty fee is applied if you miss the payment deadline.

If you have not received a fee notice by February 15, call the College of Teachers at 416-961-8800. It is also possible to pay your annual fees at:

Website Online at www.oct.ca

In person or by mail to 101 Bloor Street West, Toronto ON M5S 0A1

Recently retired permanent contract teachers should note that they may not receive this reminder their first year of occasional teaching.

OCT fees are not deducted from your pay. Occasional teachers (daily and long term) must remit their fees directly.

Active Retired Members (ARM)

In 1996, OSSTF/FEESO established a new type of membership specifically for Active Retired Members \(ARM\). This allows retired members of OSSTF/FEESO who wish to remain actively involved with their colleagues politically or socially to rejoin OSSTF/FEESO.

Active retirement offers an opportunity for continuing involvement with the educational community at both the local and provincial levels.

Local chapters of ARM have been or are being organized to provide members with opportunities to gather for social events and/or political action activities.

The experience, skills and abilities of retired members are valuable resources that should be utilized to further goals in areas such as political action, legislative lobbying, crisis assistance, research, communications, and public relations.

ARM Organization

In 1996, the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation (OSSTF) established a new type of membership specifically for Active Retired Members (ARM). Maternity Leave

General information

You are entitled to take maternity and parental leave no matter how much you work, the TDSB will always give you the time off, whether in an LTO or doing daily OT work.

You have the choice of 12 month or 18 month leave. You can change your leave return date with at least 4 weeks notice to the Board in writing. You can apply for the leave of absence with this form. http://www.otbud12.com/media/Occasional-Teaching-Leave-Request-Form-\(Revised-August-2020\).pdf.pdf)

In order to qualify for EI Maternity / Paternity benefits, you must have a certain number of insurable hours under EI. In normal times, this was 600 hours in the year prior to taking mat leave, however the Government has changed this recently in some cases to reduce the number of hours required, as many people were not able to work due to COVID. You need to consult Service Canada for your specific eligibility requirements and to see what the policy is/will be when you take your leave.

You can choose 12 month or 18 month options, both result in the same dollar amount, just spread out over a different period of time. Once you choose the 12 month or 18 month option, you cannot change this with EI. There are also additional weeks available if you share the leave with your partner. See the government website for specific details.

EI pays a percentage of your average weekly earnings of the previous 52 weeks. Click here for more info or contact Service Canada directly. <https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/ei-maternity-parental.html>

You may find it advantageous to take 18 month leave from the TDSB, but take 12 months from EI. This would allow you to have more time off (reduce cost and burden of childcare) but also the flexibility to return to work, should you have the financial need to do so.

Teachers on daily casual assignments are not entitled to pregnancy leave benefits.

If you are in a LTO at the time you start maternity leave, you are entitled to apply for a 'top up' to be paid in addition to your EI benefits, called the SEB Supplemental Employee Benefit. Click here for the application form: <http://www.otbud12.com/media/SEB-Schedule-II.pdf> This provides for a short time top up on your EI. If you have already finished your LTO, then you are not entitled to claim for this.

You are allowed to take your mat leave and EI up to 12 weeks prior to giving birth, so you might find it advantageous to take you leave earlier, in order to get the supplemental 'top up' SEB, or you can work right up until you give birth, the choice is yours.

If you have a medical reason for not being able to work you can book off and use disability days until they run out or you give birth. You will need the doctor to fill out the application attesting you have a valid medical reason / condition. Contrary to what some people believe, just being pregnant is not enough.

You can voluntarily start her mat leave up to 12 weeks prior to the day you are expected to give birth. There is no medical evidence needed for this.

For more information on Pregnancy Leave see page 53 of the OTBU D12 Collective Agreement 2022-2026. Available on the OTBU D12 website <http://www.otbud12.com/>

Accepting Job offers from SmartFindExpress (SFE)

In the previous school year, the Board struggled to fill daily Occasional Teaching job vacancies through the SmartFindExpress automated call-out system. In many instances, the shortfall has compromised the ability of schools to properly support the learning needs of our students.

Please appreciate that in the absence of Occasional Teachers picking up work for which they are available, the prospect of jobs going unfilled will remain a source of concern to all system stakeholders, most notably students and their parents. The TDSB community relies on its Occasional Teachers to provide for the kind of quality instruction and care that our students deserve when circumstances necessitate the absence of their regular teacher.

In the spirit of our shared commitment to the academic and personal well being of students, please be reminded of the importance of accepting all calls offered by SmartFindExpress, and to be aware of your professional obligations in respect to the required number of days that must be completed by June 30th of each year.

Secondary Occasional Teachers:

- Secondary Occasional Teachers: in addition to submitting your renewal online in the month of June, you must complete a minimum of 20 full time equivalent days in order to remain on the list for next year. You will have until June 30, 2024 to complete the 20 days.
- If you have been provisionally reinstated to the Secondary Occasional Teaching List, you must complete a minimum of 20 days to remain on the list for next year, and a minimum of ten (10) full time equivalent days of the 20 days must be completed between February 1 and June 30 to qualify for reinstatement to the Occasional Teacher List.
- Accept all job offers, as SFE may phone you for jobs associated with the classifications within your SFE profile. A Secondary Occasional Teacher who refuses four or more assignments (as per clause 20.7.0) for which they are qualified within a period of twenty (20) school days or who cannot be personally contacted for an assignment over a period of fifteen (15) consecutive schools days may be removed from the list.

For clarity, this refers to assignments for classifications on an Occasional Teacher's SFE profile for which they have indicated they are certificated (i.e. on their Ontario College of Teachers Qualifications Record) OR for which they have indicated they are willing to teach. If you have indicated a willingness to teach a particular classification (e.g. subject/grade/etc.) but do not want to be required to teach it you may want to consider updating your profile by sending an email to dispatchteaching@tdsb.on.ca.

LTOs and the Dispatch System:

School Shall	Occasional Teachers Shall
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once the occasional teacher has been hired into the LTO position it is the responsibility of the school to ensure that a job is created (usually 3-4 weeks) on SmartFindExpress until the LTO assignment is processed so that the occasional teacher is paid in a timely manner and does not receive calls for other work. If you are creating jobs in SFE for an absent teacher on sick leave, and the teacher is then put “on leave”, all future dated jobs will be cancelled in SFE. You
will need to monitor this to ensure that a vacancy job is created in order to pay the occasional teacher until the occasional teacher is set up as the LTO.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> On the 10th day of the assignment it is the responsibility of the school to submit the paperwork to Employee Services in order to have the Occasional Teacher set up as an LTO. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you receive a cancellation call for a job in SFE where you have been working towards your 10 day status, you should check with the school regarding your status. The teacher you are replacing may have been put on leave which caused all future dated jobs to be cancelled.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once the LTO appointment is set up and the LTO's name appears under the school list in SmartFindExpress, it is the responsibility of the school to advise the LTO to block themselves on the SFE dispatch system for the duration of their assignment. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the LTO does not do this, he/she will continue to receive phone calls for work. Information on how to block themselves is available in the Quick Reference Cards at the back of this Handbook.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> If you have been hired as a half time LTO, you will need to block yourself off by adding unavailability dates in SFE. If you are a half time LTO who works every other day you need to follow the same procedure and add unavailability dates to block the days that you are not available. If you are a half time LTO who works every other day as an occasional teacher, you need to remind the schools where you work as an occasional teacher that they need to split your full day job into two half day assignments for two different days (see pg 40 for form). Unavailability dates will need to be done on a weekly basis.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Once your LTO has ended, it is the responsibility of the Occasional Teacher to ensure that he/she is available again on the SmartFindExpress system to receive calls for daily work.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is the importance of a job number? You need a job number in order to be paid. The job number links the teacher to payroll and creates a work record which can be referenced for future clarification. It is important that you record the job number and always carry the job number with you.

2. What happens if I need to review my job after the start time of the job?

Once the job has started – i.e. 8:30 a.m., you can only review your job on the SFE website, not on the phone. Why do I receive calls for which I am not qualified? You may receive calls for subjects/grades you did not specify on your profile for the following reasons: ● You may be on a school's priority list and they wish to have you for any job in their school. ● SFE will search for a subject/grade qualified occasional teacher and if no subject/grade qualified occasional teacher is available you could be the next occasional teacher called. The decision whether or not you take these jobs is yours.

3. Why do I receive calls for which I am not qualified?

You may receive calls for subjects/grades you did not specify on your profile for the following reasons: ● You may be on a school's priority list and they wish to have you for any job in their school. ● SFE will search for a subject/grade qualified occasional teacher and if no subject/grade qualified occasional teacher is available you could be the next occasional teacher called. The decision whether or not you take these jobs is yours.

4. What happens if I have to cancel an assignment on the day of the assignment?

If you must cancel on the day of the job, you have a responsibility to notify the school at the time you cancel in SFE. If no one answers your call to the school, leave a message on their answering machine. The later you cancel, the harder it is for SFE to find a replacement. It is your choice to cancel any job but it is important to remember that doing so at the last minute is very disruptive to the school day.

5. What happens if I arrive at the school and I am told the assignment has been cancelled for that day?

Situations may arise where a school has cancelled a job at the last minute. When the Occasional Teacher arrives at the school, the Occasional Teacher will be assigned to an appropriate job that is within his/her profile. It is very important that you have your job number available in this situation.

6. What happens when SFE calls me for a job and I already have a job booked for the same day?

SFE has not made a mistake; you will be called about your job cancellation. The new job offer is an indication that the job you previously accepted has been cancelled.

7. What happens if I already have a job for tomorrow and the school I'm at today asks me to stay?

Sometimes a situation may arise where a job may be extended. When a job is extended it may conflict with a previously accepted job. It is recommended for continuity of the student's program, that the Occasional Teacher remains in the current job if possible. As a courtesy, please call the school when you are cancelling an assigned job. In order for the current job to be extended, the occasional teacher must cancel their previously accepted job as soon as possible. 257.

8. What should I do if I receive a late call?

The Board has an obligation to make every effort to have a fully qualified teacher in every classroom. The Dispatch System will continue to call for an occasional teacher even when the students have already entered the class. However, if you are considering accepting a late call, you should be ready to leave as soon as you hang up the phone, and arrive no later than 1 hour from accepting the

9. What time should I arrive at the school?

You should arrive no later than 15 minutes prior to the start of the time specified on the job description. You should always consider distance and travel time. If you live in Pickering and the job is in Etobicoke, leave that job for someone who lives closer. The expectation is that you arrive within one hour of accepting the job. Call the school to inform you are on your way.

10. What are my responsibilities as an Occasional Teacher at the end of the day?

Please refer to the section in this handbook on the Responsibilities of the Occasional Teacher. (see page 29) Please do not call the Dispatch Help Desk for directions to school locations.

10. How do I find out where the school is located?

- Access TDSB website at www.tdsb.on.ca
- Look for the icon along the top of the page that says "Find Your School", and click on the icon, or click the following link: www.tdsb.on.ca/findyour/school/byaddress.aspx
- You will then be taken to a page that will give you options on how you would like to search for the school (by Map, Address or School Name)
- Click "Search by School name"

Start typing the name of the school in the text field, or click on the letter that corresponds with the first letter of the school where you have accepted the job

Once you click on the school name that you are looking for, you will be taken to a new page that will give you the exact address and school information – as well as a map that you can view to see the exact intersection. If you are unsure of the directions to the school – you can visit some great online resources listed below for direction

- <http://maps.google.com>
- <http://www.tdsb.on.ca/findyour/school/byaddress.aspx>

11. Can I turn down assignments?

Yes, however, in the morning if you decline five (5) jobs the system will stop calling you with job offers for that school day. There are no restrictions during the evening call out. The TDSB counts on occasional teachers in maintaining the continuity and excellence of the learning process. Secondary Occasional Teachers: Please refer to clause 20.7.0 in your Secondary Occasional Teaching Collective Agreement as it relates to job refusals. 26 12.

12. What happens if I (or an answering machine) hang up the phone without entering my Access ID and PIN number?

The result of the call from SFE will be a "no answer". During the morning call out, five (5) "no answers" will disqualify you from receiving further calls for jobs for that day.

13. What will I hear when I call SFE?

You will hear an introduction "Welcome to the Toronto District School Board Dispatch System" asking you to "please enter your access ID followed by the * key" and then "please enter your PIN followed by the * key". You then follow the voice prompts and choose options by pressing the keys on your phone (must be a touch-tone phone).

14. What is the sequence of the job call out?

Specifically requested by school

School's priority lists by subject/grade

School's priority list (not by subject/grade)

Occasional Teacher's priority schools/zones by qualified subject

Occasional Teacher's priority schools/zones by willing to teach subject

Occasional Teacher's priority schools/zones regardless of subject

15. Will I be able to hear future jobs that are available for me to accept?

Yes, after 12 noon each day you will hear jobs for which you have been specifically requested. If you are the next person in the queue, you will hear jobs for which you are listed on priority lists and any other open jobs where you are next in the queue and for which you are qualified in the schools or zones you have indicated. Once SFE has exhausted the qualified pool, you will also hear jobs outside your area of qualification.

16. Will I be able to view future jobs for me to accept on the web?

Yes, after 12 noon each day you will view jobs for which you have been specifically requested. If you are the next person in the queue, you will be able to view jobs, for which you are listed on priority lists/priority lists, and any other open job for which you are qualified in the schools or zones you have indicated.

17. What happens when I am listening to a job and I get a message "this job is being offered"?

If you hear this message it is because SFE is in the process of offering the job to another Occasional Teacher.

18. Can I listen to what is available before making a choice?

Yes, you may be presented with up to five (5) jobs per call-in. As you listen to each job, you can have it repeated. You can accept the job, decline the job or ask to hear another job. Bear in mind that the job can be accepted by another Occasional Teacher and may disappear from your choices. If the job truly doesn't interest you, decline it.

19. What happens when I am searching for jobs on the web and I see a job with a message "In Call Out" mode?

You are only able to view the job but not accept if the job is in "call out" mode. The message on the screen will say "This job is currently being offered to a substitute. You may retry later." You can accept or decline a job only when "Details" is displayed on the screen. 27

20. Can schools request me?

If you are not restricted as a condition of employment, then yes, schools can specifically request you by one of two methods: • They may personally contact you to be pre-booked. Once this is done the school should immediately enter the job in SFE to provide you with a job number; or • The school may enter the job into SFE and specify you as the requested Occasional Teacher. When you receive a call for a job under this circumstance, either accept or decline the job immediately.

21. What happens if a school specifically requests me, or places me on their priority list, but I have not indicated on my profile that I am willing to teach at the school or in that zone?

Special requests and priority lists take precedence. You will be called for that school. If you do not want to be called for that school, you should call the school and ask them to take you off their priority list.

22. What happens when I accept an LTO and also have future occasional teaching jobs?

You need to cancel all occasional teaching jobs that you accepted prior to getting your LTO, and make yourself unavailable during the duration of the LTO assignment.

23. What happens when I have accepted an LTO assignment and I am still receiving calls for work from SFE?

The school should be placing you in a job until your LTO assignment is processed in order to ensure that you are paid in a timely fashion as the Occasional Teacher. • Once your LTO appointment has been processed you will be notified by email and must make yourself unavailable.

24. How do I block myself for a certain day of the week?

Refer to Quick Reference Card (QRC), option number 6 see next few pages

25. What do I do if I do not want to work for an extended period of time?

If you are planning to be unavailable for more than a three (3) week period, you need to complete an Occasional Teacher Leave Request Form (See Appendix H), also available on the TDSB Occasional Teachers website. You need to block yourself on SFE and make the following choice: "Do you wish to be called for future jobs?" • If yes, SFE will continue to call you for jobs beyond your unavailable period • If you are planning to be out of the country, make sure you click that you do not want to be called for future jobs – otherwise your voice mail may fill up with SFE messages.

25.b Can I turn down assignments?

Yes, however, in the morning if you decline five (5) jobs the system will stop calling you with job offers for that school day. There are no restrictions during the evening call out. The TDSB counts on occasional teachers in maintaining the continuity and excellence of the learning process. Secondary Occasional Teachers: Please refer to clause 20.7.0 in your Secondary Occasional Teaching Collective Agreement as it relates to job refusals.

26. What happens if I am searching for jobs on the web and the system is very slow?

The response time for occasional teachers shopping for jobs when they have a very large profile of classifications and schools/zones can be very slow at certain times of the day, it is suggested to search in portions of time; i.e. one week at a time as opposed to an entire month.

27. How do I view or make changes to my existing SFE profile?

See Appendix E – Occasional Teacher Profile Information see next few pages

28. How do I advise the Board of a change to my personal information?

See Appendix G – Occasional Teacher Notification of Change see next few pages

Snow Days?

If you had a job scheduled and it is canceled due to a 'snow day' past practice is that the TDSB will pay you for the day.

We don't have language in our Collective Agreement stating that OTs must get paid for a snow day. The OTBU has successfully argued for it in the past, but that is not a guarantee that TDSB will agree to it.

(Any jobs that were picked up after the closure email was sent out by the TDSB will likely not be paid.)

Our OTBU exec team will continue to advocate for our members when they next meet with senior TDSB management, taking the position that pre-booked jobs, jobs that were booked before 6 am, should be paid out. At this point, however, we cannot guarantee they will be paid. Problems are dealt with on a case by case basis.

Pertinent information—school, job number, and times you accepted the job and when it was cancelled. The OTBU will also need this information to advocate on your behalf.

SFE BEST PRACTICES

Review the SmartFind Express Home Page frequently for important information.

- If you know that you will not be available to work on a particular day, please block yourself on SFE so the system will not waste time calling you for jobs. That will free up the system for your Occasional Teacher colleagues.

Simply turning off your cell phone DOES NOT make you unavailable. The system will continue to call your cell number, instead of phoning other Occasional Teachers. You must modify your unavailability on the system in the following way:

- Call in before the call-out period. Enter your information and choose option 4 to review or modify a "do not call time". This can be set for up to 5 hours from the time you make this call.
- If you forget to change your unavailability prior to the beginning of the call-out and the system calls you, press 2 to set a temporary "do not call time". This can be set for up to 5 hours from the time you receive this call.

- It is important that you have a schedule so SFE knows when to phone you. If you are unable to accept work for a period exceeding 3 consecutive weeks, please submit a complete Occasional Teaching Leave Form. If you know that you will not be available for daily work for a period less than 3 consecutive weeks, it is important that you adjust your SFE profile so you do not receive job offers. This can be done via the web or phone (see Appendix C and Appendix D)
- Always ensure that your call back number is correct. To change your call back number refer to the Quick Reference Card (QRC), option number 3.
- Please do not phone in or use the web to search for jobs while the system is calling out.
- SFE is in regular callout Monday to Friday daily from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., Monday to Wednesday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., Thursday evenings from 5:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., and Sunday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.

- Do not tie up the phone lines for long periods of time as this prevents school administrators and teachers calling in to report absences. As well, while you are tying up a phone line, you could miss an important job offer. These lines are monitored for abuse.
- The best time to call the system is after 4:15 p.m. and before the evening call out, or any time after the evening call out and before the morning call out time. You may also call in after 12:00 noon to hear future jobs.
- The best time to search for jobs on the web is after 12:00 noon, to see future jobs.
- Use measured search parameters – i.e. search job by week at a time instead of a month.
- Be very careful when you are reviewing your jobs. Follow the prompts carefully so that you do not cancel your job in error.
- Always press option 9 when you are exiting the dispatch system, to ensure that you end the call.
- You should review your future bookings regularly to confirm that pre-booked jobs are still in SFE. Be available to work on Mondays and Fridays and high holy days.
- Do not cancel jobs at last minute.
- If you must cancel a job at short notice, be sure to advise the school by phone as soon as possible.

Declining a Job

Sometimes we're offered jobs we can't take on. It happens!

SmartFind Web: If you're requested for a particular absence, you'll see this job appear to you on SmartFind Web indicating that you are requested. Should you need to decline, click the job, and at the bottom of the job, click decline.

SmartFind Phone: Pick up the call and enter your tdsb employee ID followed by the # key. Then enter your PIN followed by the # key. Press 1 to listen to the job description. Follow phone instructions for declining the job.

Note: You can mark yourself as unavailable for the day and set a temporary no-call time (2 hour period).

Canceling a Job

Sometimes we accept a job and our situation changes. You could give the OA at least 2 hours notice to find a replacement when you cancel-- but its not necessary.

SmartFind Web: You'll see your job appear under 'Review Assignments'. Click on the job number and click cancel job.

SmartFind Phone: Call the SmartFind system (416-338-4500). Enter your tdsb employee ID followed by the # key. Then enter your PIN followed by the # key. Follow phone instructions for listening to jobs that you're booked for and follow instructions to cancel the job.

2. Updating “Unavailability”
3. Modifying preferred quadrants
4. Updating TDSB email address in your profile; do not use your personal email

SFE BEST PRACTICES

1. Always make a note of the job number. If there is a problem with your pay at a later date the OT-BU and the TDSB can help you only if there is a job number.
2. If you know that you will not be available to work on a particular day, please block yourself on SFE so the system will not waste time calling you for jobs. That will free up the system for your Occasional Teacher colleagues.
3. Simply turning off your cell phone DOES NOT make you unavailable. The system will continue to call your cell number, instead of phoning other Occasional Teachers. You must modify your unavailability on the system in the following way:
 - Call in before the call-out period. Enter your information and choose option 4 to review or modify a "do not call time". This can be set for up to 5 hours from the time you make this call.
 - If you forget to change your unavailability prior to the beginning of the call-out and the system calls you, press 2 to set a temporary "do not call time". This can be set for up to 5 hours from the time you receive this call.
1. It is important that you have a schedule so SFE knows when to phone you. If you are unable to accept work for a period exceeding 3 consecutive weeks, please submit a complete Occasional Teaching Leave Form. If you know that you will not be available for daily work for a period less than 3 consecutive weeks, it is important that you adjust your SFE profile so you do not receive job offers.
2. Always ensure that your call back number is correct. Please do not phone in or use the web to search for jobs while the system is calling out.
3. SFE is in regular callout Monday to Friday daily from 6:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m., Monday to Wednesday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., Thursday evenings from 5:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., and Sunday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.
4. Do not tie up the phone lines for long periods of time as this prevents school administrators and teachers calling in to report absences. As well, while you are tying up a phone line, you could miss an important job offer. These lines are monitored for abuse.
5. The best time to call the system is after 4:15 p.m. and before the evening call out, or any time after the evening call out and before the morning call out time. You may also call in after 12:00 noon to hear future jobs.
6. The best time to search for jobs on the web is after 12:00 noon, to see future jobs.
7. Use measured search parameters – i.e. search job by week at a time instead of a month.

8. Be very careful when you are reviewing your jobs. Follow the prompts carefully so that you do not cancel your job in error.
9. Always press option 9 when you are exiting the dispatch system, to ensure that you end the call.
10. You should review your future bookings regularly to confirm that pre-booked jobs are still in SFE.
11. Do not cancel jobs at last minute.
12. If you must cancel a job at short notice, be sure to advise the school by phone as soon as possible.

Review your SFE Jobs Daily

It is important to review assignments in SFE on a daily basis to make sure that they are the same as you understand them to be, and that you are hired and approved to work in the appropriate position with the Toronto District School Board for that assignment.

There have been several instances where Substitutes have either not accepted jobs and have reported to schools anyway without the SFE job number; or Substitutes have accepted jobs correctly and have not shown up. All of this can be avoided by checking your assignments in SFE daily and particularly before you leave home for an assignment.

Remember - if you do not have an SFE job number, which is your proof that you are assigned to that job then the system will show that you did not accept that assignment. Review your SFE profile based on your locations, qualifications and availability.

If you have any questions in regard to your SFE Profile, or Availability, please phone 416-338-4747 Option 2.

Review your Pay Statements

As an Occasional Teacher, it is your responsibility to regularly review your pay statements to ensure you are properly paid for the days you have worked.

If there are any discrepancies (i.e. Missing pay), please review your SFE calendar and connect with the location(s) where you worked. If you require support after you have followed up with each location, please connect directly with your Occasional Teaching Contact.

Please note that your pay is processed 2 weeks in arrears. The pay schedule can be found on the Payroll Services site on the TDSBWeb (see page 3 for log on instructions).

Pay statements are posted on myINFO. Please see the next page for instructions on how to access your pay statements.

To ensure security and privacy of information, use the Sign Out link to disconnect from SmartFindExpress, and close the web browser when you finish with your session.

The best time to search for available jobs is before midnight or between 12:00 noon and 6:00 p.m.

When you are searching for jobs on the web and see a job with a message "in call out" mode -you are only able to view the job if the job is "in call out" mode. The message on the screen will say "This job is currently being offered to a substitute. You may retry later." You can accept or decline a job only when "details" is displayed on the screen.

You will only see jobs for which you have been specifically requested (after 12:00 noon each day), or if you are the next person in the queue, you will see jobs for which you are listed on priority lists/preferred lists and any other open jobs for which you are qualified in the schools or zones you have indicated. You will also see jobs outside your area of qualification only if the system has exhausted the search for qualified occasional teacher.

The web search is a good way to co-ordinate two half day jobs.

Notes

Don't forget to "bookmark" this site on your computer for easy access!

If the Calendar Icon does not work on your computer when you are selecting a date range, you need to enter the dates manually.

You will see available jobs on the browser or hear available jobs on the phone line after 12:00 noon even when you have blocked yourself and requested not to be called for future jobs during this period of unavailability. If you are not interested in the job, please decline.

To review past jobs put in your date range (jobs are only kept for one year from the current date). Scroll down and press next to see all your jobs.

Your unavailability dates are only maintained in SmartFindExpress for one school year.

PR 560

Dealing with Abuse and Neglect of Students

THE LEGAL DUTY TO REPORT

The law in Ontario requires that all individuals report abuse or neglect – witnessed, disclosed or suspected. This duty arises from Section 72 of the Child and Family Services Act.

EVERY person in Ontario, including a person who performs professional or official duties with respect to children must immediately report to a children's aid society ("CAS") if they suspect that abuse or neglect has occurred or if a child is at risk of abuse or neglect.

3. A person who has formed a suspicion of abuse or neglect must report directly. The responsibility to report cannot be delegated to anyone else.
4. A person who has additional reasonable grounds to suspect abuse or neglect has an ongoing duty to report. As such, you must contact CAS again even if you have made previous reports with respect to the same child.
5. It is an offence under the Child and Family Services Act for a person who performs professional or official duties with respect to children such as a teacher, psychologist, social worker, child and youth worker who contravene or fail to meet their reporting obligations. The penalty, if convicted, is a fine of up to $1000.
6. The duty to report suspicions of abuse or neglect still applies even if the information is privileged or confidential. The only exception to this is solicitor client privilege.
7. All persons who suspect abuse or neglect and subsequently make a report in accordance with this section will be protected from legal action, unless the person acted maliciously or without reasonable grounds for the suspicion.

Advisories on Social Media, Professional Boundaries and Duty to Report

www.https://oct.ca/resources/categories/professional-advisories

USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION AND SOCIAL MEDIA -

This professional advisory is intended to help Ontario Certified Teachers (OCTs) understand their professional boundaries and responsibilities in the appropriate use of electronic communication and social media.

For the purposes of this advisory, electronic communication encompasses social media and other messaging forms that enable users to interact, create, share and communicate information online. For example, electronic communication includes, but is not limited to, messaging or video chat software, websites, apps, email, texting and blogging. It also includes social media networking platforms such as Facebook, Twitter and YouTube.

PROFESSIONAL VULNERABILITY

Ontario Certified Teachers can be vulnerable to unintended misuses of electronic communication and social media. Even the most innocent actions can be easily misconstrued or manipulated. The immediacy and simplicity of a text message, for example, may lead to longer, informal conversations that become personal. Social media encourages more casual dialogue. Rules may relax and informal salutations may replace time-respected forms of professional address.

Electronic messages are not anonymous. They can be tracked, misdirected, manipulated and live forever on the Internet. Social media sites create and archive copies of every piece of content posted, even when deleted from online profiles. Once information is digitized, the author relinquishes all control.

The use of the Internet and social media, despite best intentions, may cause OCTs to forget their professional responsibilities and the unique position of trust and authority given to them by society. The dynamic between a teacher and a student is forever changed when the two become "friends" in an online environment.

Ontario's certified teachers should never share information with students in any environment that they would not willingly and appropriately share in a school or school-related setting or in the community.

Inappropriate use of electronic communication and social media can also result in a member being criminally charged and convicted, or facing civil action.

Electronic communication and social media can be used as evidence in criminal and civil proceedings.

Inappropriate online, email and telephone conversations between teachers and others, including students, colleagues, parents, employers, family and friends, expose teachers to the possibility of disciplinary action. Cell phone use, for example, is one of the largest entry-level gateways to the distribution of child pornography. Even one-time errors in judgment involving the exchange of photos, videos, audio recordings or comments of an intimate or personal nature may lead to a complaint of professional misconduct.

Inappropriate emails, texts and other forms of electronic communication have been used as evidence in disciplinary cases and cited in findings of professional misconduct.

Examples of inappropriate electronic communication include:

- intimate or personal texting with students
- inviting students to meet privately or without a valid educational context
- sending personal email or social networking contact information to students to communicate for personal reasons
- using informal and unprofessional language with students, such as profanity
- criticizing students, parents or colleagues openly on Facebook
- posting or forwarding content, links or comments that might be considered offensive, discriminatory or inconsistent with professional or ethical standards.

MINIMIZING THE RISKS: ADVICE TO MEMBERS

- As a digital citizen, model the behaviour you expect to see online from your students.
- Teach students appropriate online behaviour and the proper use of comments and images.
- Maintain professional boundaries by communicating with students and others electronically at appropriate times of the day and through established education platforms (for example, an authorized school web page rather than a personal account).
- Maintain your professionalism by using a formal, courteous and professional tone in all communications with students and parents.
- Avoid exchanging private texts, phone numbers, personal email addresses, videos or photos of a personal nature with students.
- Do not issue, and decline, “friend” or “follow” requests from students. Consider the privacy implications of accepting these requests from parents.

ACT PROFESSIONALLY

- Operate in all circumstances online as a professional – as you would in the community.
- If you are using a web page or social media site professionally with students, treat the space like a classroom. Apply the same rigorous professional standards.
- Consider whether any content may reflect poorly on you, your school or the teaching profession before you post it.
- Be transparent and authentic. Use your true, professional identity at all times. Even if you create a false identity, courts can compel disclosure of your true identity.
- Avoid online criticism about students, colleagues, your employer or others within the school community.
- Avoid impulsive, inappropriate or heated comments.
- Ensure that your comments do not incite others to make discriminatory or other professionally unacceptable comments.

Go to the OCT website to access the full Advisory. This is a severely abridged version.

PROFESSIONAL BOUNDARIES

EXAMPLES OF BOUNDARY VIOLATIONS INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO:

COMMUNICATION

- using an unprofessional tone; too casual; using language inappropriate to the age group
 - suggestive remarks; obscene language; inappropriate verbal compliments; comments that are racist, homophobic, sexist or related to ableism; using hurtful, humiliating words; berating students
 - sharing jokes of a sexual or racial/cultural nature
 - talking about sexually inappropriate matters
 - refusing to stop discussing intimate/sexual matters when a student asks
 - using social media to connect with students about intimate or sexual matters
 - withholding information about academic performance to manipulate time alone with the student
 - asking sexual or intimate questions of students
- sending messages that are overly familiar, inappropriate, or invasive of the student's privacy

PHYSICAL

- inappropriate eye contact and interpersonal distance such as staring at a student's body
 - physical contact such as touching, hugging, tickling, massaging
 - unwarranted, unwanted or inappropriate touching of a student with an object such as a pencil or ruler
 - pushing, shoving or hitting a student
- unwarranted presence when a student is dressing or undressing

EMOTIONAL

- treating students preferentially
- encouraging students to develop emotional dependencies that the educator can use to develop an inappropriate romantic or sexual relationship

- promoting the idea of educator as friend or confidante intentionally choosing not to intervene when a student is in imminent distress

RELATIONSHIP

- flirting or expressing romantic feelings towards students in any form
 - engaging in a romantic and/or sexual relationship with a student

- using technology to start or perpetuate a relationship outside of the appropriate role, time, and place governing educator-student interactions

TECHNOLOGY

- using social media to communicate inappropriately with students at any time using personal email, websites or social media or technology not authorized by the employer to communicate inappropriately with students

- singling out students by giving them money or gifts in a preferential manner.

Duty to Report

Each of us has a responsibility to protect children and youth from harm. As a professional educator working directly with students and supporting others who are, you have a legal and ethical duty to report to a children's aid society when you have reasonable grounds to suspect that a child is or may be in need of protection.

Ontario's Child, Youth and Family Services Act, 2017 (CYFSA) requires those who perform professional or official duties with respect to children to report suspected child abuse where there are reasonable grounds. This requirement applies with respect to children who are under 16. However, if you have reasonable grounds to suspect that a child who is 16 or 17 is in need of protection, a report may be made even though it is not required.

You don't have to be certain that a child may need protection. Suspicion on reasonable grounds – information that an average person, using normal and honest judgment would need to decide – is reason enough to report. You have to report to a children's aid society so that they can assess and determine what the child needs.

What are the risks of communicating with students on social media?

Members put themselves at greater risk when they engage in any communication with students that could be interpreted as inappropriate and unprofessional. That applies especially to the use of social media. In some cases it has led to employment termination.

Teachers are held to a higher standard of behavior than other professionals and are at greater risk of allegations of inappropriate conduct with students. They are also under greater scrutiny with respect to their public behavior, and in the world of electronic communication, in many ways, all behavior is public behavior.

Attached, please find the Professional Advisory on the use of Electronic Communication and Social Media published by the OCT. It provides excellent advice on how a teacher must conduct himself or herself with respect to the use of electronic communication and social media.

Go to the OCT website to access the full Advisories. These are severely abridged versions.

Boundaries

From OSSTF District 6B:

Boundaries must exist in any professional relationship. Because teachers are deemed to be in positions of power and influence over students, and care about meeting the needs of those students, individuals may be at risk of getting into trouble over boundary violations. This resource points out the vulnerability of OSSTF members with respect to boundary violations as they perform the duties of their positions.

We must support students in a caring, respectful, yet appropriately professional manner. Dependency of the student is to be expected and never exploited. However, in certain cases the boundaries can become blurred or ambiguous to members.

The spectrum of violations can be regarded as a "slippery slope". Common cases include:

- increasing duration of appointment times
- a personal relationship that the educator would hesitate to fully admit to with his/her own family or friends
- moving from meeting in a school classroom to meeting at off-school locations
- excessive self-disclosure about the educator's personal life
- personal comments about a student's dress or appearance that may lead to sexual overtones or even to "grooming" a student for future sexual behaviour

Consequences to a member who is accused may include one or more of the following:

- suspension with or without pay while the matter is being investigated
- great damage to the member's own marriage, family and reputation
- reporting to and subsequent investigation and/or action by outside agencies such as Children's Aid, the College of Teachers or another professional college
- discipline from the employer, ranging from a letter of reprimand to dismissal
- for serious cases, police charges

Members should avoid:

- making comments to students of a personal nature
- making comments to students of an inappropriate nature
- sending emails to students
- giving students gifts
- sending emails, letters or notes or making telephone calls of a personal nature to students
- seeing students in private or isolated situations (meet in a classroom with the door open) physical contact that may be misconstrued to be of a sexual nature (e.g. patting, hugging)
- inviting students to their homes

If you are accused, say nothing and call OSSTF immediately. OSSTF assistance will be provided. Grievances will be launched if discipline is excessive and legal assistance may be provided on a case by case basis.

Intention:

Your intention doesn't matter.

It is -

Reception

How were your comments or actions received.

And-

Perception

How were your comments or actions perceived by others.

From District 6b

The Courts and the education system is inclined to believe the student. Their primary job is to protect the student, you are assumed to be guilty from the start. The result is that an innocent remark intended to be friendly if taken the wrong way could result in a partial or full suspension of work until resolved and if deemed sufficiently serious result in dismissal. Teachers have been dismissed from the Board because they asked to be a "Facebook" friend with a student. That might be seen as 'grooming'. If the situation is related to 'equity' the consequences can be just as serious.

Making the transition from being a student to the professional teaching role is sometimes difficult. As students, you spent long periods of time in schools, and so it is tempting to think that you know the norms of behaviour that are appropriate. However, the standards of behaviour for teachers are quite different from those demanded of students, and in fact are higher than the standards of behaviour for the general adult public because teachers hold a position of public trust.

The Ontario College of Teachers also expects teachers to behave professionally and to respect professional boundaries. Complaints made against teachers for professional misconduct are taken seriously and could result in an investigation and possibly a discipline hearing. Penalties could be anything from a caution to a suspension or even revocation of one's teaching license.

In other words, treat all of your educational co-workers with courtesy and respect, as you wish to be treated in return. Gossiping about other staff members and about students must always be avoided.

If you have a profile on a social networking site such as Facebook, Instagram, or Pinterest to name just a few, never invite students to be your “friend” nor accept students as “friends”. It would also be a very good idea to go over your profile and ensure that your privacy controls are limited and that you remove any content or photographs which you would not want your colleagues, students, their parents, or prospective employers to see. There have been cases in Ontario school boards where teachers have been reprimanded or disciplined for comments or photographs that they (or their friends) have posted on such sites. In other cases, people looking for jobs have been passed over because employers have found questionable content on job applicants’ profiles. Better safe than sorry!

What to do when assaulted?

Assault is an act of verbal aggression, or an act or threat of physical aggression, which produces damaging or hurtful results.

1. Immediately report the incident to school administration and the police.
2. Immediately seek medical attention, if necessary. Only medical attention from a doctor who fills out a "Form 8" is recognized for WSIB purposes.
3. Notify the OTBU office via telephone (416-423-3600) or e-mail otbu.office@d12.osstf.ca
4. Document what took place before, during, and after the assault and include names of witnesses.
5. Fill out the following forms: The OTBU Handbook found on the Home Page in the Documents & Forms Box has information of what to do if you are assaulted.\

This Health & Safety Reporting Guide will help you determine what forms need to be filled out in any given situation.

<http://www.otbud12.com/media/1-2016-08---Administrators-Guide-to-H&S-Reporting.pdf>

Who investigates?

- Your OSSTF OTBU Health & Safety Representatives.
 - Joint Health & Safety Committee,
 - Employer.
- Police, and Ministry of Labour, if required.

What legal procedures can be followed?

- If the police have not been notified, the assaulted Member should do so in a timely fashion. The Workplace Safety & Insurance Board (WSIB) will take action against assailants. The injured worker must sign a document giving the WSIB the right to seek restitution for payments made to victims of workplace violence.

When can you refuse unsafe work?

- The Right to Refuse Unsafe Work

The Occupational Health and Safety Act allows workers to legally refuse unsafe work. For Teachers, the process for the exercise of that right is unique, as described below, and is available for printing in original on the Provincial OSSTF website at Right to Refuse Work – For Teacher Members Only. For OTBU members, the Right to Refuse Unsafe Work would involve the OTBU Health and Safety Officer, or a designated Executive member who is a certified representative(s). The Ministry of Labour will investigate refusals with reference to individual worksites or work stations.

- the right to refuse work due to violence (Bill 168) and if the physical condition of the workplace is likely to endanger them. [Section 43(3)(b)]

- This Act also requires all workers to work in a safe manner that will not create a condition endangering themselves or other workers. [Section 28(2)(b)]

Refer to Provincial OSSTF's Health and Safety Information Bulletin at www.osstf.on.ca "Right to Refuse Work" for correct procedure and programme exceptions.

What prevention measures can be taken?

- All workers have a right to a safe and healthy workplace. The responsibility for providing and maintaining this safe workplace belongs to the employer.
- All workers have the Right to Know about hazards in their workplace and safe procedures. The employer must provide training programs to all workers to enable them to identify any hazard in their workplace and to perform their work in a safe manner. This should include potentially violent situations and the necessary prevention techniques. Training programs must be developed and implemented in consultation with the Joint Health & Safety Committee.

Where a potentially violent situation has been identified and cannot be eliminated, specific protective measures should be developed. This usually involves modifying existing practices or written procedures to conform with the board's Violence-Free Policy (required by the Ministry of Education) in consultation with the Joint Health and Safety Committee. Sabrina's Law – Protecting Anaphylactic Students

What is Sabrina's Law?

Bill 3 – Sabrina's Law is named after Sabrina Shannon, a 13 year-old from Pembroke with a dairy allergy, who died in 2003 from an anaphylactic reaction after eating french fries which may have been contaminated with dairy.

On January 1, 2006, legislation was enacted to protect anaphylactic students in a school setting.

What is Anaphylaxis?

Anaphylaxis (anna-fill-axis) is a serious allergic reaction that can be life-threatening. Anaphylactic reactions occur when the body's sensitized immune system overreacts in response to the presence of a particular allergen. Anaphylaxis affects multiple body systems, including skin, upper and lower respiratory, gastrointestinal, and cardiovascular.

What causes an anaphylactic reaction?

Food is the most common cause of anaphylaxis, but insect stings, medicine, latex, immunotherapy, or exercise can also cause a reaction. Ninety percent of serious food allergic reactions are caused by:

Peanuts	Soy
Shellfish	Egg
Tree nuts	Wheat
Milk	Sesame
Fish	Sulphites (food additives)

What is Epinephrine?

Epinephrine – also known as adrenaline is the first line medication that should be used in the emergency management of a person having a potentially life-threatening allergic reaction. It is recommended that it be given at the start of any suspected anaphylactic reaction.

What schools are doing

- Schools have identified students with life-threatening allergies and individual plans for each anaphylactic student in consultation with the parent/guardian are in place for all school activities.
- Staff with regular contact with an anaphylactic student have been trained and are aware of the locations of epinephrine auto-injectors (Epi Pens).
- Posters are displayed in relevant/visible locations in the school.

Special considerations for elementary students

- Eating periods should be supervised by a trained adult.
- No "sharing" means no giving or taking food.
- Self-administration (age appropriate) of epinephrine – adults should always be prepared to respond.
- Proper hand washing before and after eating.

Special considerations for secondary students

- These are considered "high risk" years.
- Teens may act impulsively, take risks, and not want to stand out or be different.

Common law ('good Samaritan') protects people when they provide emergency first aid in a reasonable and acceptable manner. Give epinephrine and call 911 is the medically recommended response.

What can you do?

Be informed. When you arrive at a school, ask if there are any anaphylactic students in the classes you are covering, and if so, what is the emergency response plan at the school.

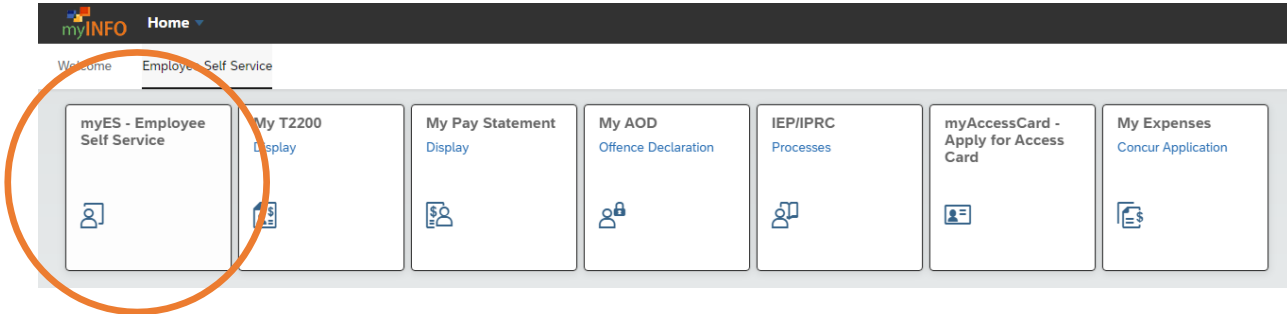

Please refer to Procedure PR607 - Diabetes Management for information on the management of diabetes in schools.

The purpose of the TDSB Code of Conduct is to further promote the mission of the TDSB and to provide a framework for individual schools to develop local, school-based codes of conduct or to modify existing codes of behaviour. The TDSB Code of Conduct is to be read in conjunction with the Safe Schools policy and all related TDSB policies.

See Appendix _ – Safe and Caring Schools Incident Reporting Form

▪ Progressive Discipline and Promoting Positive Student Behaviour, PR.702

To establish a framework to build, support and maintain a positive school climate that focuses on progressive discipline and promotes positive student behaviour. Progressive discipline is a whole-school approach that utilizes a continuum of interventions, supports, and consequences to address inappropriate student behaviour and to build upon strategies that promote positive behaviours. When inappropriate behaviour occurs, disciplinary measures should be applied within a framework that shifts the focus from one that is solely punitive to a focus that is both corrective and supportive. Progressive discipline is a process designed to create the expectation that the degree of discipline will be in proportion to the severity of the behaviour leading to the discipline and that the previous disciplinary history of the student and all other relevant factors will be taken into account. Progressive discipline must take into account the needs of individual students by showing sensitivity to diversity, to cultural needs and to special education needs. In addition progressive discipline must be in keeping with Ministry of Education and Board policies on antiracism, ethno cultural equity and antidiscrimination education.

▪ Bullying Prevention, P.06 CUR:

To establish a framework to enable, support and maintain a positive school climate. Bullying – is typically a form of repeated, persistent and aggressive behaviour that is directed at an individual or individuals that is intended to cause (or should be known to cause) fear and distress and/or harm to another person’s body, feelings, self-esteem, or reputation. Bullying occurs in a context where there is a real or perceived power imbalance. Bullying is a dynamic of unhealthy interaction that can take many forms. It can be physical (e.g. hitting, pushing, tripping), verbal (e.g. name calling, mocking, or making sexist, racist or homophobic comments), or social (e.g. excluding others from a group, spreading gossip, or rumours). It may also occur through the use of technology (e.g. spreading rumours, images, or hurtful comments through the use of e-mail, cellphones, text messaging, Internet Web site, or other technology).

▪ Code of On-line Conduct, PR57:

The TDSB provides on-line systems and resources for use by employees and students. All policies, procedures, codes of behaviour and rules of the TDSB apply to those using online systems and resources provided by or on behalf of the TDSB.

The TDSB takes appropriate measures to ensure the security of the facilities and information that may be contained in them and reserves the right to monitor the use of on-line resources by all that access the systems.

Inappropriate use of on-line access could result in disciplinary action that may include legal action and/or involvement of police.

▪ Dealing With Abuse and Neglect of Students, P04:

The Board shall have zero tolerance in all of its learning environments for physical, sexual and emotional abuse and/or neglect of students. Abuse and/or neglect refers to any form of maltreatment contemplated in the Child and Family Services Act and includes but is not limited to, physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional abuse, exposure to family violence or neglect.

(See Operational Procedure PR673 BU: Employee and Community Partners Conflict of Interest examples.)

- Police Reference Checks, SR2:

The Ontario government released Regulation 521/01 (now 322/03) which states that School Boards must collect a police reference check on all existing and new Employees, and on service providers who come into direct contact with students on a regular basis. Once a record check has been collected under this Regulation, school boards are required to collect, on an annual basis, "Offence Declarations" (a form to update a person's information on file by declaring any new criminal code convictions). The intent of the legislation is to ensure that schools and classrooms are safe places for students.

- NEW! Social Media and Online Content Procedure PR735

To help support staff in navigating these risks and responsibilities, the TDSB has recently developed the Social Media and Online Content Procedure \(PR735\). This new procedure, developed with input from the board's unions, federations and associations, applies to all TDSB employees who administer, contribute to, or access official TDSB social media accounts or channels, including school, classroom and department accounts. The procedure also speaks to the importance of responsibilities associated with TDSB employees' personal social media accounts and online content when the information shared relates to the TDSB or may have an impact on the TDSB, its students and/or staff.

We ask all staff to please review the Social Media and Online Content Procedure (PR735) to ensure that you understand the responsibilities, expectations and professional boundaries of using social media. By following the expectations outlined in this procedure, we can all make sure that we're getting the most out of social media and the benefits it can have for student learning, professional development and personal use.
